

CONTENTS

OF

VOLUME FIRST.

| | PAGE |
|------------------------|------|
| PREFACE | v |
| INTRODUCTION | 1 |

LETTER I.

| | |
|---|----|
| Departure for Cove | 13 |
| Feelings on contemplating the Country through which we passed | 16 |
| Arrival of the Ship for our conveyance | 17 |
| A Description of her Accommodations—Embarkation, &c. | 20 |

LETTER II.

| | |
|---|----|
| Sea-sickness and unpleasant weather | 27 |
| Death of various Children | 28 |
| Arrival on the Great Fishing-Bank, and View of the American Continent | 29 |
| Delightful appearance of the St. Lawrence and its numerous Islands | 31 |
| Interesting manners of one of the Female Aborigines | 33 |
| Island of Orleans, and hospitable reception on it | 35 |
| Entrance of the Basin at Quebec—Falls of Montmorenci | 38 |
| Arrival at Quebec | 41 |
| Diversity of Language and Costume | 42 |

LETTER III.

| | |
|--|----|
| Situation of Quebec | 45 |
| Its fine external appearance, Fortifications and Citadel | 46 |
| General Wolfe's Statue | 49 |
| Public edifices of Quebec—Castle of St. Louis—Roman Catholic Cathedral—Protestant places of Worship—Court House, &c. | 54 |
| Origin of the word Quebec, and population of that city | 57 |