NOTES.

THE Editor requests that all communications for the future be addressed to him at TORONTO, to which place he has removed.

THE CANADIAN CHURCH MAGAZINE AND MISSION NEWS appreciates highly the kindly notices from time to time given of it by the press, such as those that recently appeared in The Gazette (Montreal) and The Canadian Churchman.

THE Rev. J. C. Whitley was consecrated at Ranchi, in India, as the first Bishop of the new See of Chota Nagpur, on the 23rd of March.

THE Rev. J. C. Cox, so long connected with this magazine as a successful agent, has, to our regret, retired from the work; but we wish him a career of usefulness and happiness in the parish work that he has undertaken at Windsor Mills, Diocese of Quebec.

The "Report of the Third Public Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Huron, March 4th and 5th, 1890," is to hand, and reflects great credit upon the ladies connected with it. It is encouraging to see such evidence of deep interest taken in the assistance of missionaries and missionary work.

A FEW years ago Canada was surprised at the extraordinary methods of revival adopted by two visitors, Sam Jones and Sam Small. It is no doubt further surprised to learn that the latter is about to become a Church clergyman. The growth of the Church in the United States is remarkable. Large accessions from other bodies are coming to her continually, among them quite recently a prominent Presbyterian minister, of Philadelphia.

IN answer to the appeal made by Rev. Mr. Holmes found in the columns of our April issue, a few members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Huron, procured a very handsome set and sent it to the missionary. This is praiseworthy. The Auxiliary of St. Paul's, London, have sent six sacks of clothing to Rev. J. Gough Brick, of Peace River.

THE Rev. E. F. Wilson has been successful in instituting his Canadian Indian Research and Aid Society. The following officers were elected at its inaugural meeting held in Ottawa on the 18th day of April:—Presidents, Sir William Dawson, the Bishop of Ontario, Hon. G. W. Allan; Vice-Presidents, Rev. Dr. Bryce, Sir James Grant; Secretary, Rev. E. F. Wilson; Treasurer, Rev. W. L. Marler.
