Collingwood (Ont.) Bulletin: All who are interested in the choicest bits of Canadian history should secure this series.

Rev. M. Harvey, St. John's, Nfld: I cordially congratulate you on the excellent judgment and good taste with which you have made your selections. You are rendering an important public service, especially to the younger generation of readers, which I trust will be duly recognized.

The Wesleyan (Halifax): A most interesting number (IX) of this exceedingly valuable and interesting series of pamphlets. Mr. Hay is doing his fellow countrymen, old and young, an unspeakable service in the issue of these eminently readable and accurately written compounds.

Manitoba Free Press: The complete series will form a body of really valuable historical material.

Nelson, B. C., Miner: We do not know anything that will tend more to popularize Canadian history than those bright, clever papers, as interesting as they are novel.

Orillia, Ont., Packet: The plan was excellently conceived and so far has been admirably carried out. . . . Teachers and students of Canadian history will find them valuable, far beyond the trifling cost.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Guardian: Number Nine is an especially valuable number of this excellent series.

Charlottetown Patriot: Composed of papers, contributed by the leading historical authorities of Canada and devoted to a pleasing variety of subjects, these "Half hours with Canadian History" will do much to popularize all that is inspiring in the early records of our country.

Halifax Presbyterian Witness: Of the series as a whole we wish to say that we are grateful to the editors and the contributors. . . . Teachers especially ought to encourage the circulation of these historic readings. We hope the young people of the sea-provinces will not forget their obligations to Mr. Hay for this publication which brings so vividly before the reader a past of which as a country, we need not be ashamed.

Campbellton, N. B., Events: These history readings are excellent and the series well worth a good binding and prominent positions on one's library shelf.

Toronto Canadian Historical Records: Mr. Hay has been fortunate in securing such scholarly and well-informed contributors as Victor H. Paksits, W. F. Ganong, Col. Cruikshank, Sir John Bourinot, and others.

Montreal Gazette: What we said some time ago of the Old South Leaflets as affecting United States readers, is especially applicable to this experiment of Mr. Hay's, as affecting students of our own annals. At a nominal cost (ten cents a number) one is favored with a veritable treasury of tidbits by our foremost historians, dealing authoritatively with what is most noteworthy in the records of the old regime and the new.

Toronto Globe: The object of the publication is obviously to popularize knowledge and to build up national sentiment.

Halifax Herald: These papers have enough in them to interest intelligent pupils, to teach them something of the sources of history and about authorities, and to awaken the spirit of research.

Montreal Witness: The most stirring incidents in Canadian history have been selected, many of them from original papers and documents not accessible to the general reader.

Toronto Bookseller and Stationer: Students of early Canadian history will much appreciate these issues, containing, as they do, contributions by the leading writers in all our provinces.

St. John Telegraph: When the series is complete it will form a most valuable body of Canadian history.

Edmonton (N. W. T.) Bulletin: The articles are interesting and of great value from an educational point of view.

Truro News: These Readings are filled with instructive facts about our history that everybody should read. The compiler has in view to popularize knowledge, and to build up in our young a national sentiment that we should all support.

St. John Sun: The whole publication is not only useful for the purpose designed, but contains historical studies of great general value.

St. Andrews Beacon: The subjects touched upon are treated in a most interesting manner, and with a regard for accuracy which make them highly valuable to the historical student.
