Mission Work in South America.

THE same hand of God which gave North America to England and Protestantism, permitted the Southern Continent to come under the sway of Papal crowns. And so this vast Peninsula with its fourteen states waits to be "discovered" anew, and evangelized by Protestant Christians. The conditions strikingly resemble those of Mexico; Papal dominion stamps all countries alike, with a stereotyped political, social and moral life, so that from one we may infer the rest. In proportion to Papal control, ignorance, superstition, priestcraft, formalism, a fettered intellect and a perverted conscience prevail everywhere.

Our Missions in South America are planted in four only of her great states—Brazil, Chili, Peru and the United States of
