Rev. Dr. Somerville.

AS we look upon the portrait of this eminent servant of Christ, we seem yet to hear the thrilling tones of his voice as he earnestly presented the Gospel he so much loves; and it scarcely seems possible that so many years have elapsed since we were privileged to sit beneath the sound of that voice, for it is now ten years since he made his tour of the United States and Canada, as representative of the General Assembly of the Free Church, at the first General Assembly after the union of the Presbyterian

Churches of Canada. When this pleasant duty was over, he found time to take an evangelistic tour, and hundreds of souls will, throughout eternity, bless the day when they were led, through his words, enaged by the Holy Ghost, to accept of Jesus Christ as their Saviour. Wherever he went he found a hearty welcome, and, at many points, old friends flocked round him, and recalled reminiscences of thirty-one years previously when (in 1845) he had visited Canada. Those thirty-one years had left the traces of their footprints in whitened locks,
