ST. LOUIS HOTEL, ST. LOUIS
 STREET.
 This well-known HOUSE, which, during the past winter, has been not only enlarged by an addition of a new wing four stories in height, and which, otherwise, has been much improved by the complete, and of a commodious, easily accessible, airy, and well-lighted DINING ROOM; by the introduction of all the modern improvements known in similar first class establishments—Baths, Billiard Rooms, Steam Laundry, &c. and by the complete furnishing of the whole building—Lobby, Drawing Rooms, Private Parlours, Bedrooms, Reading Rooms, &c., was reopened for accommodation of the travelling public on THURSDAY, 6th JUNE, 1865.

The undersigned proprietors have spared neither pains nor expense to make their Hotel in St. Louis Street fully equal to any establishment of the kind in British North America, with a view to obtain a continuance of that support and encouragement which has been so long extended to them in Quebec, and which it has been their care to merit.
