Superintendents
of Sunday schools who are thinking of introducing a new singing-book this season should send 25 cents to THE CENTURY CO. (33 East 17th St., New York), for a sample copy of Dr. Robinson's "Spiritual Songs for the Sunday School." The leading papers of almost every Protestant denomination call it the best work of the kind yet published. It is different from other Sunday school books in many ways, both internally and externally. The pastor of the Memorial Church, of Buffalo, says: "The book is making our school more worshipful." The 170th thousand is just coming off the press.
