

IN MAGNITUDE, ACCURACY, AND CONVENIENCE, NO WORK EQUALS THE

Cyclopædia of Quotations.

WITH FULL CONCORDANCE AND OTHER INDEXES,
By J. K. HOYT and ANNA L. WARD.

Octavo, 900 pages, cloth, $5.00; sheep, $6.50.

In scope, variety, accuracy, and convenience, it is beyond comparison the best work of the kind ever issued. It contains every desirable quotation to be found in other books of the kind, and besides, thousands of quotations not heretofore collected.

The accuracy of all the quotations has been carefully verified; and the authorship of each has been identified and the place where to be found indicated. The arrangement embraces many new features which will make at once accessible every one of 17,000 QUOTATIONS. As a book of reference it is indispensable to all readers.

THE PICTORIAL FAMILY BIBLE

Is acknowledged by ministers, Bible students, the best judges, the ablest critics, and the most successful canvassers, to be superior in the following important features to any Bible published:—

Beautiful white paper—stronger and more durably bound in handsome and attractive styles—more profusely illustrated with magnificently executed engravings and embellishments—thorough excellence in manufacture at lowest prices—more recent and instructive features and Bible aids—more maps, more illustrations, tables, aids, and helps than any other Bible.

AGENTS should bear in mind that the above-named points insure quick sales, and give entire satisfaction to their subscribers.

Contains 2,000 Illustrations, also Old and Revised Versions of the New Testament.

"Another book of Travels, and a meritorious one."—N. Y. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

TOWARD THE SUNRISE.

BEING SKETCHES OF TRAVEL IN EUROPE AND THE EAST.

With a Memorial Sketch of the Rev. William Morley Punshon, LL.D.

472 pages, with numerous illustrations. Price, $1.25.

Elegantly bound in extra English cloth, with black and gold stamping on side and back.

By the REV. HUGH JOHNSTON, M.A., B.D.

At the request of many friends, Mr. Johnston has been induced to greatly enlarge the admirable Letters of Travel with which the readers of the Guardian were greatly delighted during the early part of this year. And he has added a more full and adequate memorial of Dr. Punshon than any which has elsewhere appeared. SEE AGENTS WANTED.

"Books of travel by Canadians are now becoming plentiful, but none that have come under our notice are more pleasing and modest in style and graphic in delineation of sights in the Old World than this. Altogether it is a charming book, and just the kind to place in the hands of the young, as the sketches it contains are entirely free from those blemishes which too often mar the stories of modern travellers. The Memorial of Rev. Dr. Punshon is just what we would expect from a warm admirer and personal friend of that great preacher. It is admirably written, and shows a fine appreciation of Dr. Punshon's life, work, and character."—Ottawa Free Press.
