

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF JESUS THE MESSIAH

By Dr. Alfred Edersheim.

Two volumes, royal octavo, pp. 1,568, at $2 net, postpaid.

This extraordinary offer may suggest old stock, or reprints from old plates. But, no, this is a new revised edition, printed from entirely new electrotype plates, on excellent paper, and neatly and strongly bound in cloth boards.

THE author of this remarkable book was a clergyman, who, educated in the Jewish faith, was subsequently converted to Christianity. He has written a history of our Lord which so presents the laws, customs, habits, topography of places, and situation of temples and other historic buildings synchronous with His life on earth, that the reader is transported into that time, and feels that the Gospel presents a real historical scene. Accordingly, the reader will find in this work all of that learned and careful study and grouping of particulars which makes a rationalistic life of Jesus so interesting, and in some respects instructive, combined with that larger, loftier, and nobler comprehension of Jesus Christ which harmonizes, not only with that class of representations in the Gospels which are arbitrarily explained away and got rid of by the rationalist, but also with the effects in the world that have been produced by him.

STEPHEN: A Soldier of the Cross.

In a review of this thrilling story, Dr. Withrow wrote: "Its hero is the first martyr of the Christian faith. It brings into contrast with the holy Stephen the persecuting Saul, who thought verily he ought to do many things against the Jesus of Nazareth. The due exercise of the historic imagination will often give a truer picture of the times than the cold page of history itself. This book will have special value to Sunday-school teachers and scholars, from the fact that the lessons for 1897 are upon that Church of the first century, whose period of persecution is here described.
