

Easement—

Water—Underground pipe—Severance of tenements, 359.

Editorials—

Ontario Bar Association—Annual meeting, 1.

Has an accused person the right to make a statement at his trial without being sworn or subject to cross-examination, 10.

Lord Alverstone—Notice of his death, 20.

Notes from the English Inns of Court, 21, 48, 84, 177, 207, 250, 338, 384.

Executions pending appeals, 41.

Liabilities of medical men, 44.

Law reporting, 47.

Liability of owner for negligence of a member of his family in operating an automobile, 52.

Parent and schoolmaster, 60.

Jury—Contempt of Court, 61.

Duration of the Dominion Parliament and the war, 81.

Consolidation of the Criminal Code, 83.

Newspaper criticism of public men, 88.

A country County Crown Attorney's random reminiscences, 89.

Emergency as a justification for trespass, 101.

The Privy Council—Diversity of British possessions, 107.

Newspaper libels—Fair comment, 121.

Ordeal by Battle—Military service, 129.

Market privileges in Upper Canada, 136.

Constitutional law—Dominion and Provincial Domain, 146.

The war and the law of contracts, 161.

Divisional Court law in Ontario, 172.

Canadian Bar Association—Next annual meeting, 182.

Mechanics' liens on increased selling price, 201.

Time of the essence of the contract, 203.

Lord Haldane, the Kaiser and the Cabinet, 212.

High Treason—Sir Roger Casement, 241.

Forged cheques, 243.

Inferior Courts in New Brunswick, 246.

Descent from the Bench, 252.

Rivers as Municipal boundaries, 281.

Canadian unity and uniformity of laws, 298.

Judicial amenities, 308.

International law—The fragments that are left, 329.

Mechanics' liens and the Registry Act, 331.

Matrimonial jurisdiction, 342, 582.

The repair of fences, 343.

Automobile accidents, 349.

Marriage laws of the Dominion:

Void and voidable marriages—Powers of Provincial Courts, 369.