words giveth light; it
giveth understanding unto the simple."

Psalm cxix. 130.

BULLETIN FUND.

THIS fund again needs replenishing. If our kind friends "whose hearts the Lord has opened" could but read the testimonies received from other cities, or hear the words which have been spoken to us, as to the blessings received from reading the Bulletin they would feel rewarded for the help extended. Our Motto will ever be "GOD'S GLORY, and the SALVATION OF YOUNG MEN."

MR. S. R. Briggs leaves us on Tuesday next for a Business trip to England. During his absence, his Sunday Afternoon Bible Class (which has increased in attendance) will be conducted by Mr. W. P. Crombie and other friends. Mr. B. will be absent about two months. We wish him a pleasant voyage and commend him to the care of "Him who made the sea."—Ex. xx. 11.

BOARD MEETING.

AT a recent meeting of the Board of Managers, a resolution was adopted expressing regret at the anticipated removal to New York of Mr. C. Edwards, whose interest in the boys' work has been so deep, and on whose labours the blessing of God has so evidently rested. Our prayers will follow him, that he may be successful in his new sphere of labour.

JEHOVAH-JIREH.

ONE day last week a young man called at our Rooms. In conversation with him we found him to be a child of God, and in much trouble of mind concerning his temporal affairs: in fact a more distressing case it would be difficult to imagine. Immediate help was needed, but how to render it was the difficulty. We knelt down and laid the case before the Lord, asking Him to open a way. It was about 11 o'clock when we prayed. As the bell sounded 12, the Secretary was passing out of his office to take the noonday prayer meeting, when a gentleman came in and handed a letter, saying, "I was asked to give you this." The letter was opened and was found to contain $10 with a strip of paper on which was written,

"For the sick poor, &c.

—C."

Just what was needed and just when needed. "Remarkable," says one. What is remarkable? Is it remarkable that God should answer prayer? Would it not be remarkable if HE DID NOT? Has He not said, "Ask and ye shall receive?" Are we not commanded to cast ALL our care upon HIM?
