

of all present were won by Dr. Tucker both for his gracious readiness, and for his timely address. As the Colonel of the Regiment said afterwards: Nothing could have been better than Dr. Tucker's appropriate and eloquent address.

The following letter from Col. Hibbard shows how the Regiment appreciated the service:

MONTREAL, July 4th, 1905.

Rev. Canon Cayley.

"DEAR SIR,—Please accept my sincere thanks for the hearty and excellent service in the St. George's Church on Sunday last, and which was thoroughly enjoyed by all members of the Regiment. I think it is due to state that the error regarding the preacher, which appeared in the press, was on account of matter which was supplied here. Prior to the receipt of printed form of service, we supposed that you as Rector would preach, and accordingly one of my officers so stated to a press representative.

"I very much regret the error and would like to assume the entire responsibility for it. Nevertheless, I am satisfied that nothing could have been better than Dr. Tucker's appropriate and eloquent address.

With sincere regards,

Yours very truly,
"F. W. HIBBARD Lt.-Col."

—
Parish Register
—

BAPTISMS.

- May 14—George Thomas, s of William Henry and Elizabeth Collins.
- May 21—John Clement, s. of James F. and Eva Kathleen Britton.
- June 4—Thomas Ferris, s. of Thomas and Frances Maud Jerkins.

MARRIAGES.

- May 4—William Atkinson to Jessie Ann Colpitts.
- May 13—Edward Keene Carruthers to Maude Beatrice Watford.
- May 27—William Henry Nixon to Alice Mather Foster.
- June 17—John Howard Kelsey to Beatrice Margaret Miller.
- June 30—Benjamin Durrent to Johanna Day.

BURIAL

- June 3—Charles Foster, aged 75.

