

PARAGRAPHIC.

Take K. D. C for sour stomach.

Solomon declares that the glory of young men is their strength; and while it is evidently physical strength of which he is speaking, the statement is equally true, if not more so, when applied to intellectual strength. For it a man is not to be judged by the coat he wears, neither is he to be judged by the body he possesses; a higher test undoubtedly is his intellectual strength. As Dr. Abercrombie has said, "If we are asked what constitutes the greatest difference between one man and another, considered either as intellectual or as moral beings, we cannot hesitate to answer—the culture and the discipline of mind."

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Do not, because you can do so little for others, do nothing. Look around you, first in your own family, then among your friends and neighbors, and see whether there be not someone whose little burden you can lighten, whose little care you may lessen, whose little pleasures you can promote, whose little wants and wishes you can gratify. Giving up cheerfully our own occupations to attend to others is one of the little kindness and self-denials; doing little things that nobody else likes to do, but which must be done by someone, is another.

The world is full of sorrow and trial, and we cannot live among our fellow men and be true without sharing their loads. If we are happy, we must hold the lamp of our happiness so that its beams will fall upon the shadowed heart. If we have no burden, it is our duty to put our shoulders under the load of others.

The following brief mention from Crashaw contains a whole sermon: Sermons to be heard, yet not so many As left no time to practice any; He heard them reverently, and then His practice preached them o'er again.

"The Accusing Spirit which flows up to heaven's chancery with the oath, blushed as he gave it in, and the Recording Angel, as he wrote it down, dropped a tear upon the word and blotted it out forever."—Sterne.

Ornamental leaded beveled glass is fast superseding the old style of dark colored glass for dwellings. Such work enhances the appearance of a building. McCausland & Son, 68 King St. W., Toronto, produce the most varied and beautiful designs in this class of work and at graded prices. The finest examples of art stained glass that are to be seen in the principal dwellings and public buildings throughout Canada are from this identical establishment.
