CONDITIONS IMPROVING AROUND SASKATOON

Conditions in this district and generally all over the west are improving gradually, writes a Saskatoon correspondent to The Monetary Times. The good crop is restoring confidence, and at the same time seems to be loosening money that was held in reserve. Collections are also good considering this season of the year, the prospects for them being much better during the next three months.

The following are the officers of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange for the ensuing year:—President, Alvin K. Godfrey; vice-president, S. T. Smith; secretary-treasurer, C. N. Bell.
