The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Honourable Don Jamieson, announces that he will be paying an official visit to Yugoslavia at the invitation of the Vice-President of the Federal Executive Council and Federal Secretary for Foreign Affairs of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, Mr. Milos Minic, from June 26 to 28, 1977. The two ministers will be reviewing the international situation with particular emphasis on the North-South dialogue and the results of the Conference on International Economic Cooperation as well as on nuclear non-proliferation and East-West relations. It is expected there will be an exchange of views on other bilateral and multilateral topics of interest to both countries.

Mr. Jamieson's visit to Belgrade will continue the now established pattern whereby the Canadian and Yugoslav foreign ministers meet periodically to consult on matters of mutual concern. The last such exchange took place when Mr. Minic visited Ottawa in September 1975.

Mr. Jamieson will arrive from Paris, where he will be attending the OECD* Council ministerial meeting June 23 and 24. Following his visit to Yugoslavia Mr. Jamieson will be addressing the Canada Club in London on June 30, 1977.
