

Mr. Clark also expressed relief at the court decision in South Africa today to grant a one month stay of execution for the "Sharpeville Six" to provide time for further legal considerations.

Mr. Clark hopes that whatever the outcome of the further legal processes the "Sharpeville Six" will not be executed.