

sure that the people of the Magdalen Islands would be very satisfied to know that such correspondence does exist.

Some hon. Members: Order.

Mr. Speaker: Is the motion agreed to, subject to the reservation expressed by the minister?

Miss LaMarsh: Mr. Speaker, I would ask the hon. member to withdraw the motion since the government cannot be bound by such an order and would not be able to produce the correspondence. Any correspondence which the hon. member produces for tabling is his own correspondence. I would ask the hon. member to withdraw the motion.

Mr. Keays: Mr. Speaker, I would never do anything in this house that would be derogatory to the government or the minister, and I am quite satisfied with having the correspondence as produced by the minister.

Mr. Speaker: Is it agreed that the motion be withdrawn?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Order discharged and motion withdrawn.
