

- 2 -

Tom Gibson's death was a great shock to me as to a host of his friends. He filled a place in the country ~~that~~ nobody else could fill.

I note what you say about witnesses. Sir Frederick Haultain told me that he had been amusing you with some of his stories in this regard. I told him that I didn't care what he told as long as he made it sufficiently amusing, and I am sure I could rely on your ~~long experience~~ not to be too credulous.

With kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

General Sir Arthur Currie.
Principal McGill University.
Montreal. QUE.

J. H. Currie

P.S. I used to get annoyed at some of the things attributed to me - but have given it up & am resigned to my fate & never deny anything any more. By the way I have a young son up at the Military College at ~~the~~ ~~Hall~~ ~~of~~ ~~Tom~~ ~~Gibson~~. I had him paraded