

3.—The fees for Matriculation and for the Library or Libraries and the Museum of the University, shall be such as from time to time, by the regulations of the Corporation, may be ordained; and shall be payable as thereby required.

4.—The academical year for the several Faculties shall commence on the sixth day of September, and shall end on the first day of May, or such other day as may be fixed by the Corporation for the conferring of Degrees. There shall be a Christmas Vacation of not more than two weeks, which shall include Christmas day and New Year's day. Provided, however, that it shall be competent to any Faculty by regulation or order (subject always to approval or amendment by the Corporation) to provide for the opening either for its regular course of study, or of any special course of study connected with such Faculty, on any convenient day other than that of the commencement of the academical year,—and also for the prolonging of any such course, whether regular or special, beyond the close of the academical year, or for the delivery of any course or courses of lectures or instruction between the close of the academical year and the time of the opening of such course of study, regular or special.

5.—The regular course of study of the Faculty of Law shall extend over three years; that of the Faculty of Medicine over five years; that of the Faculty of Arts over four years; that of the Faculty of Applied Science over four years; [that of the Faculty of Comparative Medicine and Veterinary Science over three years]*; that of the Faculty of Agriculture over four years; and that of any other Faculties respectively, when established, over such number of years as by statute in that behalf shall hereafter be ordained. In each Faculty, the details of the Course shall be such as from time to time shall be prescribed by its regu-

* Work in this Faculty has been discontinued for the present, by resolution of the Board of Governors, dated April 17th, 1903.