

A JOURNAL OF THE
Siege of the City of Louisbourg, &c.

Tuesday, APRIL 30, 1745.

HIS Day our Men of War, Privateers, and Transports, arriv'd safe at Caboruck-Bay in Cape Breton, from Congo, where we lay from the second Day of this Instant April to the 28th, at which Time we anchor'd within five Miles of the City of Louisbourgh. No sooner were our Whale-Boats got out in order to land our Troops, but Capt. Morepang came down from the City with fourscore and seven Men to prevent their Attempt. Our Privateers, however, lying at Anchor near the Shore, fir'd smartly at them, and in the mean Time

B 2

we