

magnificent structures that vie in architectural beauty with those to be found in any city, either at home or abroad, churches that are salient features of beauty to this beautiful city, but an evidence as well of the religious zeal, vim and energy that made them possible monuments that point to the fact that Methodism stands to-day as it has stood in the past, in the vanguard against the world, the flesh and the devil. A power for good not only to the citizens of London, but in many cases, the lessons taught within the walls of these sacred edifices, have gone with those who have went out into the world and have been, let us hope, a means of grace unto them.

Hamilton Road Methodist.

Rev. D. E. Martin,	- - - - -	Pastor
Sabbath services,	- - - - - 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.
Bible School	- - - - - 2.45 p. m.
Epworth League,	- - - - - Monday, 8 p. m.
Prayer-meeting,	- - - - - Wednesday, 8 p. m.
Class meeting	- - - Sunday 10 a. m., leader, Mrs. Hayball
Class meeting,	- - - Thursday, 8 p. m., Mrs. Goward
Sabbath School attendance,	- - - - - 160
Membership,	- - - - - 135

On the Hamilton Road, just east of Rectory street is another Methodist church that has been thirty years in existence. It is a substantial frame structure, and we are informed that this congre-