LEAFS AND INDIANS HAVE A HOLIDAY

Rain at Harrisburg-Walsh Goes to St. Louis Federals -Baseball Gossip.

It rained at Harrisburg yesterday, and the Leafs had a holiday.

A Baltimore despatch says: Jimmi Walsh, formerly of the Philadelphia Nationals, and who, since the organization of the Federal League, has been a member of the Baltimore Terrapins, has been sold to the St. Louis Feds. The midget will report for duty with the St. Louis Feds at once. Feds at once.

The Toronto team returns home

Phans are being laid for the reorganization of the Northern Baseball League, to include Saskatoon and Regina, and Superior, Wis., with Duluth, Virginia, Fort William, Fargo and Winnipeg from the present organization, according to a statement made today by President John Burmeister of the Northern League.

The unconditional release of Pitcher 'Chief' Bender has been announced by the management of the Baltimore Federal League Club. Bender was formerly with the Philadelphia Americans and for years ranked as one of the most famous pitchers in the game.

No American League games scheduled yesterday.

Mason Wilson Captures Templar Championship

The last of the Royal Templar weekly handicap track meets was held last night at Dufferin Park. By taking a place in each of the three events, Cam Robertson tied F. S. Chalmers for second place on the season's record. Mason Wilson with 37 points to his credit captured the all-round championship, and leads the sprinters as well. Chalmers carried off the walking honors, getting sixteen points in this section alone. Charlie Barnes heads the middle distance men, getting 12 points in races from 880 yards to two miles.

getting 12 points in races from 880 yards to two miles.

At last night's meet Wilson won the 100 yards from scratch; Mackenzie with 7 yards was second, and C. Robertson (7 yards) hird.

Altho Chalmers gave away as much as 2 min. 30 sec. in the mile walk, he caught his men in the first half mile, and finished first in 8.18. Norm Tompkins (50 seconds) and Cam Robertson (1.20) had a niee battle, finishing second and third respectively.

J. D. Robertson with a big handicap had no difficulty in winning the half-mile run. Cam Robertson (19 yards) just beat out the scratch man, Barnes, for second place.

lined up against the Judeans of the Toronto Senior League, and put up a great series. Both games were won or lost by onc-sided scores. In the first game the Broadviews of the Y.M.C.A. League were lined up against the Judeans of the Toronto Senior League, and put up a good argument until the ninth, when a few hits, mixed with misplays, let in four runs and gave the Judeans the game by three scattered singles being made off his delivery, and only one Broadview player was left on base. The second game was between Kew Beach of the Beaches Teague and Kendons of the Devercourt League, the latter winning by 7 to 0, the same score as the first game. Kew Beach played a much better article of ball than the score shows, but Lancaster, the Kendons' pitcher, was too much for them, holding them well in hand whenever they threatened to score. Smith led in hitting, with four hits in five chances, Donoghood for three bases.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 27.—Mike Gibbons considers himself in such good physical shape for his bout with Packie McFarland at the Brighton Motordrome on Sept. 11. that he has become fearful of overtraining, which is as bad or even worse than undertraining in a boxer. Yesterday he took a day off, his only exercise being a walk thru the woods and hill-climbing. He was accompanied by his brother Tom and his two hunting dogs.

his brother Tom and his two hunting dogs.

Gibbons spends as much time as possible in the open air, regardless of weather conditions. His daily program is to rise at seven, and after breakfast take a five-mile run on the road, followed by a long swim. He walks a few miles after lunch, and before going into the gymnasium. After working on the pulleys, weight machines, punching the bag, shadow boxing and sparring from eight to twelve rounds with his sparring partners, he gets a rubdown and massage. ers, he gets a rubdown and massage Then he takes a nap for two hours, and just before supper has another swim. He is in bed at night at ten o'clock at the latest. While Gibbons is always in first-class physical trim, he is devoting more time to training for the McFarland match than he has for any other. Several fans came from Chicago today to see him work, and get a line on him. Gibbons leaves here Sunday for New York.
