

LADIES' ROOMS.

Two rooms at the westerly end of the building are appropriated for the entertainment of ladies by members, one to be used as a reception room and the other as a dining-room.

Any member shall have the privilege of introducing ladies to any meal in the rooms set apart for them, provided he accompanies them.

In order to make proper arrangements for tables, etc., members are requested, as far as possible, to notify the steward by 11 o'clock in the morning for lunch and by 3 o'clock in the afternoon for dinner, the number of guests they are entertaining in the ladies' rooms, and the time lunch or dinner is required.

HOUSE DINING ROOMS.

The house dining rooms are appropriated for house dinners on such days as the Committee may decide; on all other days, any member may engage the rooms for a party of not less than six, provided he gives previous notice to the Steward, who shall report it to the Manager; and on days when the rooms are not engaged, parties, if not less than four, can dine in the rooms, subject to their being occupied by others if required.
