

count of the Society during the past year; and which annual account, duly audited, he shall present, with his general report, to the Society, at its annual meeting. He shall produce to the Executive Committee or any Sub-Committee thereof appointed for that purpose, all original vouchers, papers, books of account, and other evidence of receipt and disbursements whenever he may be so required.

No. V.

The Executive Committee may if they deem it expedient in the interest of the Society combine the offices of Secretary and Treasurer in one office on a majority vote at any of their regular meetings the officer holding such combined office to be called the Secretary-Treasurer and he shall be nominated and chosen in the same manner as set forth in No. 1 By-Laws.

No. VI.

SEC. 1.—The Counsel shall be the legal adviser of the Society and its Officers, and shall have the general charge and conduct of all suits and proceedings instituted by or against the Society and its Officers, or either of them, or in which the Society may be interested.

SEC. 2.—With the advice or consent of the President, or (in the absence or inability of the President) the Chairman of the Executive Committee, he may compromise or settle any such suit or proceeding; and may also from time to time associate with