

8 LONDON IN LITERATURE

STOW, JOHN. The Guildhall	PAGE 26
STRICKLAND, AGNES. The "Blue Ring" Incident	62
TALFOURD, SIR T. N. At No. 4, Inner Temple Lane	202
THACKERAY, W. M. Addison at Home	152
The Mall as a Promenade	261
Founder's Day at the Charterhouse	263
Death of the Colonel	267
WALLER, EDMUND. On the Statue to King Charles I. at Charing Cross	109
WHITELOCKE, BULSTRODE. A Court Mask in the Reign of Charles I.	76
WORDSWORTH, W. On Westminster Bridge	197
YONGE, CHARLOTTE M. Sir Thomas More's Fate	45

NOTE.—The extract entitled "The Fire Brigade," from George Meredith's Harry Richmond (p. 267), is printed by consent of Messrs. Constable and Co., Ltd., London, and Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. The passage from Sir J. M. Barrie's When a Man's Single entitled "First Impressions of London" is used by consent of Messrs. Hodder and Stoughton, London, and Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons. Messrs. Macmillan and Co. have also granted their kind permission for the inclusion of the short extract from J. R. Green's Short History of the English People (p. 50), and Mr. John Murray leave to use the extract from John Forster's Life of Swift printed on p. 155.