

- | 1858.   |  | 1859.    |   |
|---|--|----------|---|
| April 26 and 30.  | On proposals for government of India.  | Feb. 12. | Returned unopposed for Oxford University.   |
| May 3.  | On financial condition of the country.   | March 8. | Returns to London.  |
| " 3,  | June 7, 14, 17, and July 1. On government of India.  | " 20.    | On Representation of the People bill.   |
| " 4.  | Moves address on Danubian Principalities.  | April.   | 'The War in Italy' in the Quarterly .  |
| " 21.   | Defends Lord Canning in debate on the Cide Proclamation.   | " 18.    | On the state of Italy.  |
| June 1.   | On the Suez Canal, condemning English interference with the project.   | " 20.    | Returned unopposed for Oxford University.   |
| " 28.   | Supports Funded Debt bill.   | June 17. | Letter to the provost of Oriel.   |
| July 1 and 6.   | Proposes additional clause to Universities (Scotland) bill facilitating the creation of a national university. | " 20.    | Appointed chancellor of the exchequer.  |
| " 6.  | Moves that the army of India be not employed beyond the frontiers of India without permission of parliament.   | " 22.    | Presides at annual dinner of Royal Literary Fund.                                       |
| " 19.   | On Government of British Columbia bill.  | July 1.  | Re-elected for Oxford University, — Mr. Gladstone, 1050; Marquis of Chandos, 850.       |
| " 21.   | On Hudson Bay Company.   | " 12.    | Supports bill enabling Roman catholics to hold office of chancellor of Ireland.         |
| Oct. 'The Past and Present Administrations' in Quarterly . |  | " 18.    | Introduces budget.  |
| " 17.   | Address at Liverpool on university extension.  | " 21.    | Replies to Mr. Disraeli's criticisms.   |
| Nov. 8.   | Leaves England for Corfu, on appointment as lord high commissioner extraordinary of the Ionian Islands.        | Aug. 8.  | In defence of government's Italian policy.  |
| Dec. 3.   | Addresses Ionian Assembly.   | Oct.     | On 'Tennyson's Poems' in Quarterly .   |
| 1859.   |  | Nov. 1.  | At Cambridge, in support of Oxford and Cambridge mission to Central Africa.             |
| Feb. 5.   | Presents new constitution to Ionian Chamber of Deputies.   | " 12.    | Elected Lord Rector of University of Edinburgh, — Mr. Gladstone, 643; Lord Neaves, 527. |
|   |  | Dec.     | 'Neida, a Romance,' translated from Grossi, in Fraser's Magazine .               |