DISCOVERY KEPT SECRET

London, Dec. 18.—The invention of a new steel, far in advance of any high speed steel hitherto made, is described by The Daily Mail today by John Oliver Arnold, professor of metalurgy at Sheffield University.

Prof. Arnold, who is said to have been the discoverer of vanadium steel, claims, according to The Daily Mail, that the new steel possesses far more commercial possibilities; that it is unrivaled in hardness; that in tools it will remove a greater weight than any other steel and that it possesses comparatively longer life. The Daily Mail indicates that Prof. Arnold uses molybdenum instead of tungsten.

PRICE OF LEATHER DUE TO WAGES

Tanners' Section of Board Trade Hears Yearly Report From Retiring Chairman.

W. J. Heaven, retiring chairman of the annual meeting yesterday at the board of trade. Mr. Heaven said that William Dicks as alderman in war perhaps one of the chief causes of ruling high prices is the immense, and in many cases, unreasonable demands made by labor. In the tanning industry the year 1919 started with the prices of hides, etc., lower than the maximum prices during the war period, but in March last they commenced to rise until they had reached an unprecedented level. In July they commenced to ease off, but are now 50 per cent, higher than they were in

There has been some talk, said Mr. Heaven, that one of the causes of high-prices of leather and leather goods in Canada has been that tanners have been exporting such large amounts of leather as to create an undue shortage in Canada, but this is hardly borne out by the facts. Mr. Heaven pointed out that importing leather at high rates of exchange and exporting it at low rates is a matter of considerble importance confronting the tanners.
