ESTABLISHED 1864.

JOHN CATTO & SON OUR "OPENING" DISPLAY

SPRING FASHIONS Wednesday, the 6th March

Our collection this season will be found to comprehend all the demanded goods in each line. .

Millinery.

Never has fashion decreed more bewitching styles than those this spring calls forth. No effort has been spared to gather together the choicest con-ceptions of European and American designers, with the result that now. as ever, we have the gratification of promising our customers the very smartest headware, with the added satisfaction of knowing that no overproduction of any one model, tending to commonness. is permitted in this department.

Cloaks. Mantles. Suits.

In this department also the features of selectness and good style are very apparent, the stock being so attractive and well chosen as to make its inspection a genuine pleasure.

Dress Fabrics.

Our range of this class of goods this season will surpass even the expectations of those who already know to expect great things of us. Especial attention has been given to Grey and Black and White Dress Fabrics, and we feel sure when seen it will be conceded quite the most comprehensive showing we have ever made. Some of the most popular fabrics for suits are: Worsteds; Tweeds, Homespuns, etc., in plain tones, herringbone stripes, checks and mixtures; also estamines, cheviots, Botany twills and herringbones in serge weaves. For dressy occasions, the prevailing demand is for volles, marquisites, broadcloths, collennes, cashmeres, Panamas, etc.

Silks.

We are showing all the fashionable weaves and shades of the season, but cannot do justice to these in print. They must be seen to be appreciated.

Washable Dress Fabrics.

The finest selection of novelty-French printed cotton voiles, in every imaginable combination of pretty shades, also a fine range of new lawns, ginghams, zephyrs and French orinted wool delaines.

Mail orders carefully filled.

The erection of the I. O. F. Temple Building in this city (12 storeys) was to give the order the palatial home he felt it deserved. In it the supreme chief some years ago fitted up an "historical room" with a large number of rare Canadian and other curios. The idea of the orphan's home at Deseronto, which will stand as a lasting monument to his beneficence and philanthropy, was first announced by him in July, 1903. In that month he land staked out, and on August 27, 1904, the corner stone was laid, while in March, 1906, it was opened.

He was proud of his race and language, and in his home at Deseronto the Mohawk language was always used.

The a Conservative, he had taken but little part in active politics for some years, concluding that the chief executive officer of a great organization, that numbered amongst its membership thousands of both great parties, should keep aloof from partisan strife.

Dr. Oronhyatekha had some military experience and during the Fenan raid of and during the Fenian raid of team, attest the accuracy of his aim as a marksman.

Oronhyatekha also attained prominence in a number of societies besides the Foresters. He was well known as an Orangeman, having been a Crnadian delegate to the triennial council that met in Glasgow same years ago. As a Mason he had long since passed the third degree. He was once most worshipful grand masier-general for the Dominion, of the Royal and Oriental Freemasonry. Some years ago in Edinburgh at the world's gathering of Good Templars, in the right worthy grand lodge, he received, by an overwhelming majority, the highest office in the gift of that well-known and influental body.
