Fine Salmon Fishing This season.

Mr. Archibald, superintendent of the leeping and parlor car service of the Intercolonial, is in town on business connected with the railway. He states that the salmon fishing in the Restiguouche, Metapedia and other New Brunswick rivers is unusually good this season. Splendid catches are being made. Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, who returned to New York from the New York Salmon Club's waters yesterday, caught eight fine salmon in one day, which is the limit allowed by the club for a single rod in a day. Some of the fish weighed between 30 and 40 pounds, which is the limit allowed by the club fishing and were equally as successful as the New York millionative with the August eight of the Salmon Club's waters yesterday, which is the limit allowed by the club for a single rod in a day. Some of the fish weighed between 30 and 40 pounds, as the New York millionative with the rod. The summer hotels at Caccuna and Dalhousle opened yesterday. A larger number of guests than usual are expected this season, Mr. Archibald thinks that vegetation in the Maritime Provinces is fully as far advanced as in Ontario.
