

Store Open 1111 Nine o'Clock Saturday Night.

Oak Hall Clothing

A Product in which all that is best is incorporated, where loom-craft and hand-craft are wedded to fashions as portrayed by the best designers.

Clothes ready for the wearer—that are as good as the tailor makes—and at a saving of about half. There is an Exclusive individuality of the highest order about our garments and the make, fit and style are correct in every detail. The Price is no more than is often paid for inferior goods. Our immense manufacturing facilities enable us to use every economy in the production of high-class clothing. This is no Boast but a plain statement of facts borne out by the goods for sale on our tables. The June Reduction Sale is now going on, and economically inclined people are taking advantage of the reduced prices.

Price is no more than is often paid for inferior goods. Our immense manufacturing facilities enable us to use every economy in the production of high-class clothing. This is no Boast but a plain statement of facts borne out by the goods for sale on our tables. The June Reduction Sale is now going on, and economically inclined people are taking advantage of the reduced prices.

Reduction Sale is now going on, and economically inclined people are taking advantage of the reduced prices.

OAK HALL CLOTHIERS,

115 to 121 King St. E., Opp. the Cathedral.

HIS DISMISSAL WARRANTED.

So Reports the Commissioner Upon W. D. Fairbrother's Case.

Two Charges Against Beamsville's Discharged Postmaster - Pitt's Roller Breaks Through the Hamilton Market Scales - Police Satisfied With Dave Irvine's Sentence - Inquest Over the Drowned Man.

Hamilton, June 17.—(Special.)—Magistrate Senger of Goderich, who was appointed a commissioner to enquire into the charges against W. D. Fairbrother, late postmaster of Beamsville, who was dismissed by the Postmaster-General, has sent copies of his reports here to the lawyers interested in the case.

The principal charges against Fairbrother were: 1. That he made a constant practice of reading the postal gazette through the office.

2. Active political partisanship on his part on the day of Dominion elections, June 23, 1930.

In his report the commissioner reviews the evidence and makes the following summary: "The conclusion, in my judgment, upon the balance of testimony must be that Fairbrother's official conduct was such as justified his removal from the office. In view of the above findings, it is not necessary to occupy time in pursuing the enquiry further."

Police Rejoicing. This morning the City Engineer decided to ascertain the weight of the new Pitt roller, it having been stated that it did not weigh as much as the specifications called for, so he ordered it on the city scales on the Central Market. On being weighed, it was found to weigh 25,000 pounds, then it sank, as the scales collapsed. The platform of the scales, which were supposed to weigh as high as 25,000 pounds, sank two feet, and the roller went over on its side. The roller was not damaged. The spectral ones are now satisfied.

Police Rejoicing. There was rejoicing in police circles here this afternoon when word was received that Dave Irvine, the noted burglar of this city, was sentenced in Guelph to 14 years' imprisonment for the burglary in Florida. Constables Campaign and Canary captured.

Police Rejoicing. The remains of Henry B. Western, who was slain privately, were buried this afternoon.

Police Rejoicing. Harry Robinson, an employe at Aid. Irvine's home, was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment for the burglary in Florida. Constables Campaign and Canary captured.

Police Rejoicing. The remains of Henry B. Western, who was slain privately, were buried this afternoon.

Police Rejoicing. Harry Robinson, an employe at Aid. Irvine's home, was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment for the burglary in Florida. Constables Campaign and Canary captured.

Police Rejoicing. The remains of Henry B. Western, who was slain privately, were buried this afternoon.

Police Rejoicing. Harry Robinson, an employe at Aid. Irvine's home, was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment for the burglary in Florida. Constables Campaign and Canary captured.

Irvine about five weeks ago on the mountain side.

Dead Man May Be Clark. Today an inquest was opened on the dead body found on the lake shore yesterday afternoon. The jury met at Fitch's Hotel, and after ordering a post-mortem examination, adjourned till next Tuesday night.

The remains were brought from the Beach to Green's undertaking rooms this evening, and will be kept for a few days for identification. It is thought that the dead man is W. E. Clark, who disappeared from Toronto about 10 days ago. With the exception of the clothes, the description given of Clark in this morning's World tallies with the body.

Social Reform Meeting. Very little business was transacted at the meeting of the Social Reform Club in the Trade Council Hall this evening. Rev. Mr. Whitcomb presided. A committee was appointed to watch the City Council negotiations with the Street Railway Company, and was decided not to hold regular meetings during the summer months.

Will Not Buy Dandara. Senatorial Mr. Maclean's proposal to buy Dandara Park to the city for $85,000 was given the "marble heart" by the Parks Commission, which is opposed to the purchase of the land.

Minor Matters. Freeman Elliott, a lad who was struck by a merry-go-round, died in the City Hospital. He will be buried with Salvation Army honors on Sunday.

John Babcock, York-street, and Ed Mahoney, Hughson-street, were fined $25 each this morning for shooting craps in an alley.

Thomas Knight, Wood-street, was fined $10 for assaulting James Berg.

William Finney, Hughson-street, has been committed for trial on charges of house-breaking and theft.

The Bank of Hamilton will have a lunch counter put in the institution for the benefit of the employes.

Rev. W. F. Wilson of this city will speak at the Huron County Sabbath School convention on June 21.

A sneak thief entered the residence of Mr. Frank Morgan, 324 Queen-street south, this afternoon, and got away with a lot of jewelry.

The inquest on the dead infant found in a night soil barrel last evening will be continued next Tuesday night. Detective Bleeker has information that the mother of the child.

The remains of Henry B. Western, who was slain privately, were buried this afternoon.

Harry Robinson, an employe at Aid. Irvine's home, was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment for the burglary in Florida. Constables Campaign and Canary captured.

The remains of Henry B. Western, who was slain privately, were buried this afternoon.

Harry Robinson, an employe at Aid. Irvine's home, was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment for the burglary in Florida. Constables Campaign and Canary captured.

The remains of Henry B. Western, who was slain privately, were buried this afternoon.

BISHOP SWEATMAN STAYS.

Oil on the Troubled Waters and Resignation Withdrawn.

Exciting Debate on the Divorce Question, With Special Reference to a Recent Wedding in Toronto, Which Dr. Langtry Says Shocked Churchmen's Conscience - Some Hot Talk.

The troubles in the Anglican body which had reached their crisis on Thursday night, took a favorable turn yesterday morning, and with a sigh of relief the whole diocese breathed a sigh of relief.

Bishop Sweatman had informed the Synod that he would declare definitely on Friday morning whether he would insist upon retirement or not, and long before the appointed hour the chamber was thronged as never before.

Instead of the usual laughter and abandon, the delegates talked in the hushed tones of a church of mourning, as when ever the little southern door creaked, through which the Bishop would come, a deathly silence fell upon the assembly.

Now, led by Venerable Archdeacon Roddy, the members dropped on their knees and solemnly engaged in prayer, so solemnly that the unhappy divisions ceased.

The reading of the minutes followed, but before this was ended the Bishop's door opened, and His Lordship stood in their midst. There were the same cries of "Bishop" and the rising to the feet common to a court of law, until His Lordship had reached his chair and set regarding his hand in his clasps.

His Lordship looked worn and pale, as if he had spent the night in sleepless vigil. He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

Crevice Indulgence and Pardon. Hon. Mr. Blake here stepped out and read the resolutions of sympathy with the Bishop which were passed at the meeting of the Synod, and then, folding his hands behind his back, said that he had a few words to say on the subject.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the Synod had not been misled by the reports of the press.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Admirable Addresses at the Closing Exercises of a Successful Half Year.

The closing of the half-yearly session of the Normal School was a successful one, and the closing exercises were held in the gymnasium of the school.

The exercises were opened by a selection from the Bible, and then the principal, Mr. Kirkland, addressed the assembly.

Mr. Kirkland said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

He said that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press, and that he was glad to see that the school had not been misled by the reports of the press.

VISITED THE TENTED FIELD.

Mayor and City Fathers Spent the Day in the Camp at Niagara.

The City Hall was largely depopulated yesterday, for many of its usual occupants were enjoying the exhilaration of a trip to Niagara-on-the-Lake and of a few hours of soldier's life.

Accepting the invitation of Major Leslie, 12th York Rangers, His Worship Mayor Shaw chaperoned a party of about twenty, including Ald. Frankland, Davies, Hallam, Bryce, Scarce, Saunders, Hanlan, Hubbard, A. H. Graham, Tom Sanderson, Dick McIntyre, Harvey Hall and W. G. McWilliams, and press representatives.

Here were tented some thousands of bronzed Canucks brandishing their deadly weapons with gusto of the "tank" variety. The tenting was done in a hurry, and it only needed one invitation to cause an unbridled charge.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

The officers of the 12th, and especially the Major, were very busy and hearty, and the party took to the fields to see the parade and march of the 12th, and the 1st and 2nd battalions of the 1st Canadian Trench Battalion.

KEITH OF CAMPOBELLO.

He's a good fellow—makes very fine shoes—all $5 lines. To-day—Saturday—three lines of his

$5 Shoes $3

New English Enamel, English Custom made—Kid leather lined—perfection of work—made and guaranteed by Keith's—reg- ular price $5—now $3.00

$5 Shoes $3

Fine Vici Kid—very handsome and dressy—latest style—Good year wear—silk lining—top—sum- mer weight—Keith's best grade of $5 shoes—now $3.00

$5 Shoes $3

Best of Box Calf—double stitched throughout—looks leather covered—fine leather sole—English back stays—all the little details that mark the $5 shoes—now $3.00

$5 Shoes $3

Best of Box Calf—double stitched throughout—looks leather covered—fine leather sole—English back stays—all the little details that mark the $5 shoes—now $3.00

$5 Shoes $3

There'll be rare selling on Saturday. The sale will last only until 10 o'clock at night. If I sell every shoe in these $3 lines it will be the greatest selling of shoes I've yet accomplished. Come in the morning before the afternoon rush.

JOHN GUINANE

No. 15 King St. West.

DYEING AND CLEANING

Cents' Suits, Ladies' Suits and Cowns of all kinds

Best House in the City

STOCKWELL, HENDERSON & CO.

103 King W.—Branch 259 Yonge St.

DR. GULL'S

Celebrated English Remedy

cures Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture. Price $1.00 per bottle.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

OWNING TO MR. HENRY PUFFY

of the firm of Puffy Bros., leaving the British Columbia, will be offered for sale the Butcher and Provision stand at 39 Queen-street west, known as the Auditorium. This is a rare chance, as it is fitted in the latest style with refrigeration, automatic counters, full windows, cash register, and everything necessary for carrying on an extensive trade. Purchaser can see option of stock at valuation. All information given by Puffy Bros., 130 York-street, or A. McNeil, barrister, 15 Toronto-street.

EDUCATION.

NEW YORK—NEW YORK, 150 FIFTH

WEEK

SAMUEL MAY & CO.

IVORY BILLIARD BALL

DODGE

Wood-Split Pulley

With interchangeable bushing system. LIGHTEST, CHEAPEST, STRONGEST Pulley made. Every pulley is sold under our full guarantee. Also sizes on hand for immediate delivery.

DODGE WOOD SPLIT PULLEY CO.

74 York Street, Toronto. Telephone 2780.

BUSINESS CARDS.

FIFTY CENTS—BUYS FIVE HUNDRED

PRINTING—CARDS, STATEMENTS,

PERSONAL.

DETECTIVE HUCKLE PAYS SPECIAL

HELP WANTED.

SKILLED MECHANIC WOULD LIKE

WANTED—FOR TWO WEEKS—GOOD

SALEMEN WANTED GOOD PAY

WANTED—GOOD GENERAL SER-

WANTED—HELP—RELIABLE MEN

ARTICLES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—TWO CRICKET BATS,

ONE 12-HOR