Church. Dr. Kilpatrick of the Manitoba College addressed the meeting during the morning.

The callest item of business was the call presented by Knox Church to the Rev. A. B. Winchester of British Columbia.

The call was presented, signed by 262 members and 44 adherents, out of a members and 44 adherents, out of a membership of 500, by the Rev. Dr. MacKay, who made a strong appeal on behalt of Mr. Winchester, who, he held, was in every way well fitted to meet the present want in the congregation. If, he said, the call should not be sustained, the difficulty in getting another signed would be greatly increased, owing to a growing apathy while was worse than direct opposition.

Rev. Mr. Gilray, Rev. Dr. Gregz, Rev. Mr. Rae and others spoke in support of the call. On being put to a vote, the conference was unanimous for Mr. Winchester.

Lancaster, Ont., Nov. 6.—At 12.15 o'clock to day a special train from New York city arrived at the Grand Trunk Railway station here leavilies the results of the control of tion here, bearing the remains of Sir Rod-erick Cameron, who recently died in London , England, for interment in his native the arrival of the train by Mr. Henderson, for Tarte. undertaker, for the conveyance of the remains to Williamstown, about five miles dis-

Sir Roderick Cameron's two sons and a number of the immediate relatives accompanied the body here from New York. Quite a number of the residents of the community and other relatives of the family were at the station and followed the hearse to Williamstown, where the Rev. A. Grand Coroner Greig opened an inquest on the ham of Knox Presbyterian Church, Lancaster, officiated in the closing ceremony. There was a profusion never seen in rural districts of rare and beautiful flowers, the coffin being hidder almost from yiew by them, and the top of the hearse also being covered with them.

The burial took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Cometery, Williamstown, after which the relatives of deceased returned to Lancaster, and, boarding the waiting special train, left the station on their return journey, after having taken part in the last sad rites to a loving father, true partlet and one of Glengarry's most eminent sons.

Inquest Touching the Death of Miss Magee, Who Was Run Over on Monday.

At the Agnes-street station last night coroner Greig opened an inquest on the body of Eliza Augusta Magee, the aged woman who was fatally injured at the corner of Jarvis and Gerrard-streets on Monday afternoon.

C. Archie Macdonald, 282 East Gerrard-street, testified that he was passing the corner at the time of the accident. He saw the carriages approach the corner on the west. The driver of the former pulled his horse up and allowed the vehicle going east to pass. Deceased was passing

A Magic Pill—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling, but channot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vanquished in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument, in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensuremuch suffering. To these Farmelee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure.

Now For Furs.

We are on the cool edge of winter now, where the whole "proposition" of out-of-door life is to feel warm and comfortable, and at the same time to be stylish—to look stylish. The solving of this proposition by us is an easy matter: We have lmported the best Parisian designs in "1900" fur creations; we have selected every skin carefully; we have manufactured these skins into garments in our own work rooms. That is a guarantee for quality and style, and your neighbors will give you their personal guarantees.
