NEWS OF THE FILM FAVORITES AT THE LOCAL THEATRES

Daily 2:15

(2 Shows) 7 and 9 15c and 25c.

All Seats Reserved First Evening Performance.

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

In the Comedy Screen Hit

A Sparkling 5-Part Comedy, Taken From Kennett Harris' Story "Talisman" in the Saturday Evening Post,

Charlie Chaplin Here again in His New Million-Dollar Picture "WORK"

Canadian Scenic. TASMANIA TRIO...Harmony and Comedy

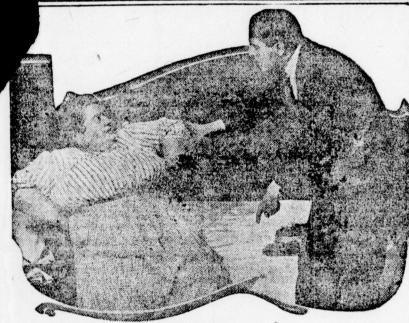

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY Good Friday Matinee-One Show. All Seats Reserved. Regular Night Prices.

Jane and Katherine Lee, the Baby Grands, in "TWO LITTLE IMPS" SIX REELS OF REAL LAUGHTER

No Lover of the Silent Drama Can Afford to Miss This Feature, Little Mary McAlister in "The Yellow Umbrella" HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE

"CLEOPATRA" IS COMING

MATS 25c, 35c; NIGHT 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c.

Taylor Holmes in "Fools for Luck At the Patricia Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A sparkling comedy taken from Kennett Harris' story, "Talisman."

Unique Next Wednesday and time than the stupendous and spectacular production, "The Fall of Comedy at the Princess Theatre Next Monday, Tuesday and The Loving Twins" at the Princess Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday is a good old Irish farce comedy. The kind that the famous old team of Harrigan and Hart were so well known for Caser has a with the most finished little actress on stage or screen. Kathering down every house in which it is for. Casey has a wife and two stepchildren, a boy and girl who are twins The son is away to college and is about No greater—no timelier—no more to return home for a visit, the first in two years. Casey has never seen the Lee Kid fan; everyone loves and adores son, but as he is a twin of his sister he knows that he will at once recognize him. The daughter has a lover, whom the patricia Theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. him. The daughter has a lover, whom Casey objects to, but Mrs. Casey is quite anxious to have him for a sonthe Romanoffs," which is to be shown at the Unique next Wednesday and Thursday. In this immense spectacle, which cost untold gold to make, and which embraces the best efforts of thousands of actors, there is presented the story—the hapless but half-herold story—of Holy Russia. It is surely a story at once the most enthralling and the most enlightening, at once the most startling and sensational, that has ever been told. It presents situations unparalleled in the whole history of the world. own, and then gets a fustice of the peace to marry her to her lover, thinking she is his step-son. The situation becomes so complicated that it develops into one continual scream to the finish. In the cast are Minerva Seely as Mrs. Casey, Doris Monett as Mrs. Schultz, Edith Bourchere as Mrs. Casey, Lack Online as her lover. Mrs. Schultz, Edith Bourchere as Nora Casey, Jack Quinn as her lover, Joe Hunter; Curley Monett as I. M. Hasty, a census taker; Dan Malumby as Casey, and Al. Williams as Schultz. New song numbers and wardrobe introduced.

PRINCESS

"The Loving Twins" 'This Way Out" of the Great Mystery Serial "The Lost Express" Featuring HELEN HOLMES

UNIQUE THEATRE

MONDAY AND TUESDAY EDNA GOODRICH

IN "A DAUGHTER OF MARYLAND," ALSO "VENGEANCE AND THE WOMAN," Chapter 7

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY HERBERT BRENON Presents

"THE FALL OF THE ROMANOFFS" FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, SPECIAL

WILLIAM S. HART In "THE NARROW TRAIL," An Art Craft Picture

AT THE THEATRES NEXT WEEK

PATRICIA

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY
—Taylor Holmes in "Fools for Luck," Charlie Chapiln in his new comedy,
"Work." Canadian Scenio Weekly.
Vaudeville, Tasmanian Trio.
THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY —
Jane and Katherine Lee in "Two Little Imps." Little Mary McAlister in "The Yellow Umbrelia." Highclass vaudeville act.

MAJESTIC

MONDAY, TUESDAY—Ann Penning-ton in "Sunshine Nan." Matinee only —Earle Williams in "An American Live-Wire." Vaudeville, Violet Mc-Millan in dancing and singing.
WEDNESDAY. THURSDAY—Norma
Talmadge in "Ghosts of Yesterday."
Matinee only—Special, the big farcecomedy. "Excuse Me." All-star cast. comedy, "Excuse Me." All-star cast.
Vaudeville.
Fin Keys of Righteous." Matinee only
—Kitty Gordon and Little Madge
Evans in "The Volunteer." Vaude-

UNIOUE

at the Patricia Monday, Tuesday

"Fools For Luck" is the screen attraction at the Patricia Theatre next

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Taylor Holmes, the star of this photoplay portrays the part of Philander whose parents regard her as the family jewel. The result was Jane and Katherine Lee in "Two Little Imps" at the Patricia Theatre Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Jane and Katherine Lee!" "'Nuff Instinctively you smile on hearing

Now they are appearing in a picture all their own. It is "Two Little Imps."

Of course, some grown-ups also appear in the picture, but they are neces-forth across the board, according to the whims of the little players.

Recall all the laughs Jane and Katherine have given you by their monkey-thing.

shines in countiess Fox leaders. Recall, too, that the youngsters were just little bright spots in those pictures. Then just imarine a five-reel picture crammed full of the comical antics of these children, with a fine dramatic throughout and you theme running throughout, and you have an idea of the treat before you see them.

bring down every house in which it is shown. It will convulse every man, woman and child who sees it with the best laugh of their life.

While most film fans are divided as "Huck and Tom" at the Majestic Today.

In speaking of "Huck and Tom," in which her son is to appear at the who always keeps in close touch with the work of her famous children, said: "The role of Tom Sawyer is one that I be-lieve fits Jack as no other could for papa's good will.

Now they are appear and Wednesday.

MONDAY, TUESDAY—Edna Goodrich In "A Daughter of Maryland." "Vengeance and the Woman." WEDNESDAY — "The Fall of the Romanoffs."
PRIDAY, SATURDAY—William S. Hart
In "Narrow Trail."

PRINCESS

Jepson.

Undoubtedly Philander Jepson was lucky—he was lucky to have a job, his friends thought. As an accountant he was a corking good gambier. He knew Dame Fortune had cast her optics on him at the start and played his hands with corresponding confidence. However, for fear this god-mother might sometime overlook her protege, he never missed a chance to add to his collection of lucky souvenirs.

After plucking a select bunch of cronies for a considerable wad he started on the annual two-weeks' tour of the summer resorts. Enter Brunhilda, a young lady of quite some appearance, whose parents regard her as all his life—even until recently, when traveling or waiting for his turn before the camera, Jack has had a habit of reading "Tom Sawyer." The episode of the cat and the painkiller, he has already worked out once at our home in Toronto, when he administered Sloan's liniment to Mary's pet cat."

romance.

Unfortunately at just this time Madame Fortune took a much-needed rest and trouble suddenly planted itself in young Jepson's path. Brunhilda's pater discovered all there was to know about his gambling proclivities and the gamblers suddenly shifted the luck Then Philander determined to make a fresh start. He cast tokens, signs and omens to the winds, and, Violet McMillan, Motion Pleture for the well-known danaeuse of the Zieg-feld Follies, "Miss 1917" and other, will appear in her latest Paramount photoplay "Sunshine Nan." This is an adaptation of Alice Hegan Rice's "Calvary Alley." As will be remembered, Alice Hegan Rice is the author of "Mrs. Wilgss of the Cabbage Patch," "Lovey Mary," "Mr. Opp" and others.

make a fresh start. He cast tokens, signs and omens to the winds, and, strange to relate, found things were actually breaking right for him And then he took the annual outing and found Brunhilda again, this time with long a fine line of vaudeville these days.

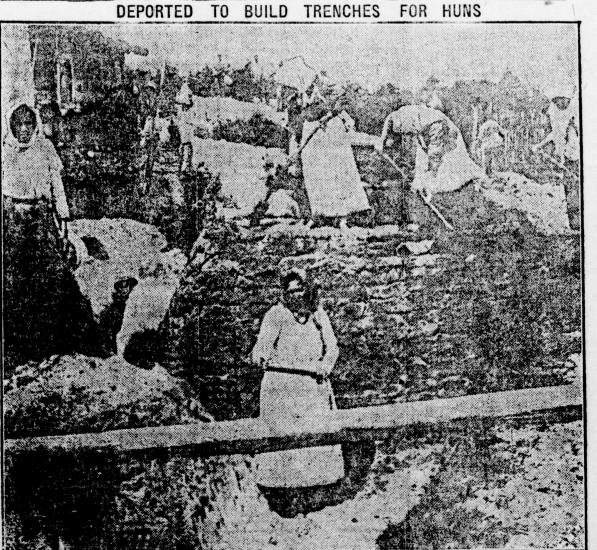

The Majestic management is bringing a fine line of vaudeville these days. For the remainder of the present week Wheeler and Young, famed violinist and planist, will be the special attraction. In addition the Majestic Concert Orchestra renders selections at every performance.

those magic names of the Fox Baby in vaudeville, in a classy singing and San Fernando Mission, one of the most famous and most visited spots in Southern California, is filmed in sev-

Saturday, Matinee Only.

TINN PENNINGTON ... Sunshine Nani

At the Majestic Theatre Next Monday and Tuesday.

PRINCESS

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY
—Princess Players present "The Loving Twins." an Irish farce-comedy.

Feature photoniavs.
THURSDAY, FRIDAY SATURDAY—
Princess Players oresent "This Way Out." Heigh Holmes in first episode,
"The Lost Express."

The Lost Express."

At the Majestic Theatre Next Monday and Tuesday.

Mire," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, when "The Volunteer," the new WorldPrincess Players oresent "This Way
Out." Heigh Holmes in first episode,
"The Lost Express."

The Lost Express."

The Poisode of the camera, Jack has had a habit of the camera, Jack has had a habit of reading "Tom Sawyer." The episode of the series in "An American Live when "The Volunteer," the new WorldPicture Brady-Made comes to the Majestic Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. Not only does the Mission provide an extraordinary artistic and provide an extraordinary art Yesterday," at the Majestic Wednesday and Thursday.

Along with Norma Talmadge's fame as one of the leading emotional actresses Ann Pennington, the Ziegfeld Foilles of the screen, she has established an Ann Pennington, the Ziegrein Polites

Girl, at the Malestic Monday and Tuesday,

At the Majestic Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, dainty Ann Pennington, the well-known danseuse of the Ziegrein Polites of the Bal Tabarin, the interport of the Bal sationally famous cabaret resort of nationally famous cabaret resort of Paris, was reproduced with especial fidelity since this is the scene of perhaps the most stirring bits in this thrilling photodrama. At the Majestic next Wednesday and Thursday.

The background for this action is without doubt the most elaborate and costly cabaret set ever erected for reproduction in a drama of the screen. production in a drama of the screen. Enid Bennett in "The Keys of the mattch was the joy of her mother's heart, but Betty was indifferent to her Righteous," at the Majestic Friday sister's advantages, and chose to follow and Saturday Next. her own taste in a husband.

Enid Bennett, the fascinating Australian screen star, now appearing at the Majestic Theatre Friday and Saturday next week, in "The Keys of the Righteous," is one of the most personally popular stars of screendom and bearts, and of the second with the second sec sonally popular stars of screendom and boasts a wide assortment of real friends as well as the thousands who know and love her through her screen work. At Christmas time she gave a large house party at Bear Valley, California, the famous resort of motion picture folk. Three tiny log cabins were erected for the party and the old-fashloned Yule log burned brilliantly through all the varied festivities.

those magic names of the Fox Baby Grands. You immediately see the upcoarlous capers of the impish Jane, the solemn humor of the more sedate Katherine. They make an incomparable pair as all film fans know.

Thousands have seen and loved these youngsters as they played their little bits in many features.

In vaudeville, in a classy singing and dancing act.

Triday and Saturday—George and Lilly Garden in a highclass musical act. Special music by the Majestic Concert Orchestra.

Earle Williams at the Majestic Monday and Tuesday, Matinee Only.

The first mas time she gave a large house party at Bear Valley, California, the famous resort of motion picture folk.
Three tiny log cabins were erected for
the party and the old-rashloned Yule party at Bear Valley, California, the famous resort of motion picture folk.
Three tiny log cabins were erected for
the party and the old-rashloned Yule party and the old-rashlon proud of him for it. And what's more, Did you ever see eight stars in one I respect and love him more than anyone in this world, and I wouldn't give him up for all the money and power your consent, I shall have to marry him just the same, so please forgive me, mother. If you knew him better you'd understand how it is-you souldn't help it." "I'm afraid I should not," snapped her mother. "We will not discuss the matter further now. You had better see if Althea's wedding gown has returned from the dressmaker's-there's not too much time." Betty went immediately, glad to have the interview ended. When she entered Althea's room she found her sister reading a magazine. A large unopened box lay on her bed. "Althea Van Ness! Do you mean to say you haven't looked at your dress? What a girl!"

FOUR BIRDS WITH ONE

STONE

By Kitty Parsons.

(Copyright, 1918, by the MoClure News paper Syndicate.)

val, Betty Van Ness became engaged to enough to be Althea's father.

Althea laughed. "Well, you see, the story was interesting, so I didn't bother. wish you'd slip it on, dear, and see if it fits. We're exactly the same size, and I'm so thred of trying things on."

Betty obeyed and in a moment she was a vision of snowy white and silver.

She booked at herself admiringly in the glass.

on, dear!" she sighed."I'll never look like this if mother has anything to say about it, for I simply won't marry any-"Never mind, Bets," cheered Althea,

SHOWING TODAY.

Jack Pickford in 'Huck and Tom

The Big Star Attraction Monday & Tuesday

ANN PENNINGTON

The Headline Attraction -- Wednesday and Thursday

True Love Transformed a Wanton Cabaret Singer Into a Woman With a Heart of Gold. NORMA TALMADGE

"Ghosts of Yesterday"

SPECIAL FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. THE PRETTIEST LITTLE STAR IN THE MOVIES

ENID BENNETT

"KEYS OF THE RIGHTEOUS"

THE BIG SHOW AND SOME SHOW. Photopiays changed three times a week-Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Doors Open-Atternoon, 1:30; show 2:15 to 5; Evenings, 6:45; shows 7:10 to 9, 9 to 10:30. MAJESTIC CONCERT ORCHESTRA AUGMENTED-10 PIECES. Leadership Mr. Joseph Tirri,

At the Majestlo Theatre Next Wednesday and Thursday.

At the Majestic Incase to the Archive to the Majestic Incase to the ger. The idea of making herself so great that in a short time Mrs Van Ness was speaking of her son, Lieutenant Moore, with the same respect that and Moore, with the same respect that she showed when she spoke of the uld be worse!

everybody's help, Althea and the colonel made the five o'clock train for Washington, and Mrs. Van Ness, in a blind fury of rage and disappointment, gave way to helpless tears.

"Only think of the guests!" she stormed "And no bride and groom! It's hopeless—perfectly hopeless!" one else."

"Never mind, Bets," cheered Althea, "You'll get him yet. A just know something will happen soon, so don't be discouraged. Mother'il be satisfied when I'm Mrs. Gould. Just you walt!"

Betty smiled through her tears and after one last look at herself she took off her borrowed finery in a more contented frame of mind.

The wedding was to be at eight o'clock in the evening, and by eight in the morning of the great day the house began to show signs of preparation. While they were at the lunch table Colonel Gould came in, greatly excited. "Something very unforeseen has occurred." he began hurriedly. "I have the most urgent orders to leave this afternoon, and we will have to be married at once. I cannot explain very much, but it is unavoidable and there must be no delay. The minister is in the drawing-room, and Sergeant Moore will act as best man. I met him down at headquarters as I was leaving, and brought him along. You'll forgive me, please, Mrs. Van Ness, but he's a fine young man, and it was impossible to find anyone else at this hour. There's absolutely not a minute to waste, so I think we'd better join Dr. Farweil in the drawing-room."

"I'd onot understand the army at all," Mrs. Van Ness acklaimed indignantly." "They must have known it would be a left to admit the back from the train, flushed with excitement. Evon that he he train, flushed with excitement. Evon hers had to admit that he train, flushed with excitement. Evon hers was a very good looking young man. "Please, mother dear, it was a please, please, please, mother dear, it was a please, please, please, mother dear, it was the him in look

At the Majestio Theatre next Friday

