Ebbet's Field, N. Y., Oct. 6.—The Cleveland Indians, with one Brooklyn of Cleveland Indians, with one Brooklyn of the warpath again today in the second encounter of the world series with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Indians believe they have the champions of the National Leaguer gue tied to a stake, and declared themselves in prime condition today. Over 20,000 people came out to see the fray.

"A wind-blown fly ball was the cause of our downfall yesterday," said Manager Robinson of the Brooklyns today. "With an even break on luck my club will show the way to victory."

"With an even break on luck my club will show the way to victory."

"We have looked the Brooklyns over and my men feel they can take the majority of the games," said Tris Speaker today. "Brooklyn has a fine ball club, make no mistake, and I have my trouble to find pitchers to beat them in a long series."

The Chill of yesterday's defeat and a cold night did not freeze the enthusiasm of the fans, who came early to the batting practice, which indicated Robinson would use one or the other in the game. The Indians expected Grimes to pitch against them, and accordingly the fans, who came early to the ball for the fans, went of the fans, who came early to the ball yard. FIGHTING CONTINUES WITH ARMISTICE TO BE SIGNED FRIDAY

Press.—The Russo-Polish armistice negotiations are being rushed to a speedy conclusion, but the Lithuanian-Polish situation seems meanwhile to have become more acute.

The Polish official statement received this morning reports severe fighting with attacking Lithuanian divisions in the vicinity of Orany, about midway between Grodno and Vilna, and adds: "It is stated that Lithuanian troops are fighting alongside Bolshevik troops."

According to present plans, which are not definitely settled, however, the armistice between Soviet Russia and Poland, and the preliminary treaty, will be signed at a public plenary session of the peace conference next Friday, October 8.

Foreign Minister in Wrangel Council of Ambassadors Dispatches Note Couched in the Strongest Terms—Germany's Attitude Is Interpreted As a Direct Violation of the Treaty of Versailles.

Paris, Oct. 6.-The council of ambassadors yesterday dispatched a note to Germany demanding the immediate release of Power of Soviet Officials three ships loaded with munitions for Poland, which are being held in the Kiel Canal by the German authorities. The note specifically mentions the Danish ship Dorrit, but there are two other ships which also are being held.

Germany has taken the position that she is neutral in the Russo-Polish war and that she should not permit the passage of the ships, which are destined for Danzig. The ambassadors point out in their note that Germany's attitude constitutes a direct violation of the treaty of Versailles, inasmuch as the treaty specifies that the Kiel Canal is a free waterway for all nations of the world. The note is couched in the strongest terms and leaves no room for further discussion on the part of Germany.
