CATHOLICS WARNED AGAINST Y. M. C. A.

Holy Office of Rome Scores Organization.

Rome, Dec. 23.—The Holy Office issued a decree today asking Roman Catholic bishops to watch their flock against the Young Men's Christian Association, which, while professing absolute freedom of thought in religious matters, instils indifference and apathy to the Catholic religion in the minds of its adherents.

The decree mentions the Young Men's Christian Association by name. The decree says it is upheld by many Catholics who do not know its real nature, and that "it corrupts the faith of youth."

Chaired of the canon law which forbids papers, periodicals and organizations favoring religious radicalism and indifference, the decree, which requests the bishops to communicate with the Holy See within six months the decisions taken on the subject at regional congresses.

CHARGE RESENTED.—New York, Dec. 23.—Officials of the overseas department of the Young Men's Christian Association expressed resentment today when they learned that the Holy Office in Rome had issued a decree warning Catholics against the American organization as a "corrupter of the faith of youth."

POULTRY TAKES A SLIGHT DROP

Turkeys Sell Retail at 55 and 56 Cents Pound—Demand For Chickens and Geese.

Whether as a Christmas gift to the poultry of London, or because poultry was due for a drop, in nearly all lines of fowl prices at the local market this morning, prices were lower. Although the general demand was centered on turkeys, these were not offered in very large quantities. There has been a feeling all week that they would be cheaper today, and predictions of local buyers and market dealers came true. Retail dressed turkeys brought from 55c to 56c per pound, and wholesale, dressed, from 55c to 56c per pound.

The former quotations were from 55c to 56c per pound to the retailer, and from 55c to 56c per pound to the wholesaler. Prices this year are a few cents per pound higher than last year at this time, but prices as a whole are nearly the same as they were a year ago today. To the retailer last year they sold for 55c and 56c per pound, and to the wholesaler from 55c to 56c per pound.

Geese were more plentiful today than turkeys, and because of this, there was a good demand for them. Dressed, retail, they are bringing from 22c and 23c per pound, and wholesale 30c per pound. Tuesday prices were 22c and 23c per pound, retail, and 30c per pound, wholesale. Last year they sold for 22c and 23c per pound, retail, and 30c per pound, wholesale.

All geese offered today were of the highest quality, and especially those of the market house basement. Nearly every farmer was asking about the geese, and buying was much easier for the citizen.

Some fine chickens were sold today. They had a tendency to sell at the top of 35c per pound, retail, but no comments were heard because of the fine quality. Prices this year of 35c and 36c per pound, retail, and 35c per pound, wholesale are the same as last year.

Although both butter and eggs were on the square in large quantities, no comments were heard because of the fine quality. Prices this year of 35c and 36c per pound, retail, and 35c per pound, wholesale are the same as last year.
