BARKER AND STEWART BY LARGE MAJORITIES

Former is Thousand Ahead and Landers Loses His Deposit-Mayor Ousts Zimmerman.

HAMILTON, Oct. 26 .- (Special.)-The Conservatives made a clean sweep in Hamilton to-day, retaining East Hamilton by a greatly increased majority and re-capturing West Hamilton, Samuel Barker, ex-M.P., in the eastern riding, increased his majority of 201 in the last election to 1105, defeating J. M. Eastwood, Liberal, and Samuel Landers, Labor. He had pluralities in each of the three wards, the vote being as follows: Ward one-Barker 525, Eastwood 469, Landers 145. Ward six—Bar-ker 1051, Eastwood 630, Landers 497. Ward seven—Barker 1404, Eastwood 776. Landers 667. Total—Barker 2980, East-wood 1875, Landers 1309. Plurality for Barker, 1105.

The surprise of the contest was the poor run made by Landers. As he did not poll half as many votes as the successful candidate he will lose his deposit of $200. He took his defeat with grand grant grant good grace.

In West Hamilton, Mayor Stewart turned the Liberal majority of 234 in the last election into a Conservative majority of 393. He ran ahead of his opponent in every ward but two, the vote by wards being: Ward two-Stew-art 620, Zimmerman 702. Ward three-Stewart 1021, Zimmerman 880. Ward four-Stewart 1025, Zimmerman 704.

Ward five—Stewart 6098, Zimmerman 685. Total—Stewart 3364, Zimmerman 2971. Stewart's majority, 393.

The Conservatives celebrated the vic tory by marching thru the city headed by the 13th Regiment Band. There was the usual display of torches and fire-works. Their candidates made speeches, in which they thanked the workers.

When Returns Came In.
North Toronto was the scene of one of the most exciting and doubtful contests in the Dominion, and in this respect ran Centre Toronto very close. The rival candidates had two committee rooms each on Yonge-street. In ote case they were next door to each other at 803 and 805. In the other case, near Wellesley-street, they were but a few doors apart. When the returns came in at 803 and 805 the rival cheers were greeted by counter cheers. At first the returns showed gains for Shaw, the polling divisions from ward two being the first to arrive. For a long time after the ward three booths began to come in, the balance was almost even. At 6.30, however, conclusive figures were received, and George C. Campbell, who was in the southern committee room, stood on a chair and ad-dressed the faithful. They had done
