Miller Bill May Get Six Months' Hoist

Friends of the Thoroughbred Will Have Full Facts Placed Before Parliament—Interesting Budget of News From the Winter Tracks—Trotting Horse Futurities.

The Canadian racing situation is both novel and complex. The Miller bill is, of course, the dominating factor. A peculiar picture is presented of the big jockey clubs on the verge of sliding down after Canada's first half-century of the premier British outdoor sport. On the other hand, the spectacle is witnessed of the members of the Dominion Parliament being called upon in the closing hours of a projected session to deal a mortal blow to the thoroughbred industry.

There are several reasons why horsemen should keep cool. The Miller bill is in no sense a government measure, as the tremendous organized agitation by the promoters of the Miller bill has so completely stamped the government. Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself distinctly refused to father the measure, and has instead quite frankly to its official supporters that there are two sides to the question. Moreover, the members of parliament are eager for re-election. When they return to the obred have a good fighting chance of getting to wind up the session is certain to be a very marked characteristic.

The Miller bill will, of course, in accordance with the announcement made by the government be up for a full discussion. When that has been held, the pledge of the government will have been completely fulfilled.

There is no indication that the bill will be treated in any sense as a party measure. The probability is that the government will quite willingly give the bill the six months' hoist when the division bell calls in the members.

VISIT TO THE WOODBINE.

Inspection of R. J. Mackenzie's String of Juveniles—Interesting Quartet of Fillies.

R. J. Mackenzie's string of juveniles at the Woodbine are in the pink of condition. Chris. Meldrum is ready to give the Woodbine certificate as a winter health resort for horses. He has not had to spend a five-cent piece since his charges arrived last fall. The four-year-old old ch. Burstar could not be in better health. They take regular daily gallops, and will be breezed if the track is favorable in about a week. So far, none of them have been given more than a half-hour's exercise.

At the Woodbine late last fall, Burstar has developed a very strong habit of his own, and makes a stiff fight every time he is taken to the track to get back to his cosy stall in row O. When he is broken of this habit, his trainer looks for some good work from this son of Imp. Forestlaw-Burdette. He has the blood and conformation of a good prospect. The four fillies are a nice-mannered quartet, except that the ch. by Deering-Gretchen B. in a fit of restlessness a few nights ago, kicked her blanket off and made half-marks around the sides of her stall. Her half-sister, the b.f. by Deering-Cleaver, is a timid maid, and would not rest when boxed up alone until an opening was made in the stable-partition so that she could have the companionship of her chestnut relative.

The ch. L'Eau d'Or, by Imp. Altes d'Or—Logan Water, will not be ready for early racing. She looks unwieldy for her height and build, but a few months may work wonders, and Mr. Mackenzie's wisdom in placing this youngster in his string may be justified.

Miss Martimas, b.f., 2 years, by Martimas-Burrows, is the pet of the stable. A white star on her forehead and two white socks distinguish her. Her manners are perfect, and she is built for speed, and when out for exercise is eager to be allowed to run.

Should the regular Woodbine meeting be held, Mr. Mackenzie will bring Jockey Taplin and this string of horses from California. Port. distilling, b.g., 5 years, by Chucatanunda, out of White Frost; Elfin Beau, b.h., 3 years, by Elfin Beau, out of Picture Hat; Michael Angelo, ch.h., 4 years, by Imp. Ormus, out of May Angelo; Desperado, b.h., 4 years, by Imp. Loyalist, out of Amey; Melton Street, b.g., 2 years, by Imp. Meltonian, out of Tchoupetoulas; Laurier, b.c., 2 years, by Ormus, out of Plumeria; Kerry Gow, b.c., 2 years, by Garry Herrmann, out of Bonita; b.c., 2 years, by Handspring, out of Pond Lily; ch.f., 2 years, by Blues, out of Penitence 2nd; Direct, ch.h., by Don de Oro, out of Froken.

The General Armstrong, b.g., 3 years, Ben Strone, out of Privater, is out of training, having broken down.

WORD FROM WINDSOR.

Trainer Nixon is having the Valley Farm String Put in Shape.

A. H. Newman went to Windsor yesterday to put new Easter shoes on 22

Valley Farm horses in training there. In the letter to the press, Trainer John Nixon wrote that the Windsor track is in such fine shape that a good horse could even now easily do a 140 mile on the Valley Farm horse.

are ripe for training. They include Glimmer, 6 years; Charlie Elbert, 6 years; Shimonee, 5 years; William Pitt, 3 years; Lady Sybil, 3 years; English Esther, 3 years; Denham, 6 years; Noble, 3 years; Last Port, 3 years; Waup, 3 years; Farmer, 3 years; Commodore, 3 years; Legislator, 2 years; Rush Water, 2 years; Valley Maid, 2 years; Nobility, 2 years; Placer Lad, 2 years; Powderman, 2 years; Ranger Light, 2 years; George Hendrie's, Ch.c., 2 years, by Monsieur Beaucaire—Noblesse; ch.c., 2 years, Monsieur Beaucaire—Whitling Girl; Cumberland, 4 years.

J. Charles has just sent half a dozen horses, including two purchases at the Livingston track, down to the Woodbine. They will have a try-out as soon as their condition is sufficiently advanced.

Nat Ray has his jumpers out cantering every day.

Trainer D. Harrison has the Ben Brush-Nisbat three-year-old Hickory Stick, well and sound, and he will likely open the season down at Pimlico, where the soft going will be to his liking. Hickory Stick is owned by A. W. Bryan. Trainer Harrison is also well satisfied with the way T. Smith's Lady Elma has wintered. The five-year-old filly had some good work-outs last season, and was seen the money twice out of her ten starts. Mr. Harrison has his charges comfortably quartered in the brick stable near Small's Pond.

Sir Montagu Allan's fine chestnut colt Come-On has made a great improvement since those who have seen his free action while being galloped around the Woodbine track, under Trainer C. Wise's eye. The track is rather heavier than last week, owing to the soft weather bringing up the frost out of the ground.

MONROE PARK.

Jacksonville Meeting Extended Until April Sixteenth—Powers has a Mishap.

The race meeting at Monroe Park, Jacksonville is receiving such encouraging support that the closing date has been extended until April 16.

Vincent Powers had an exciting time when riding the favorite Sou, when his mount bolted against the inner rail and all but unseated her rider. Powers managed to snatch her up and when he dismounted it was found that Sou had an ugly gash on the shoulder where she came in contact with the rail.

Canadians will have a direct interest in the new American Derby, to be run for the first time on Saturday, April 2, owing to Irving H. Wheatcroft having his entrant, Alfred the Great in line for the prize.

He thinks so well of his colt's chances that he is staying at Jacksonville to personally superintend his preparation and to witness the race. The proprietor of the St. James Stable may have his big surprise in store in Alfred the Great as his horse, Green Seal, gave in winning the Florida Special on Saturday last. Those who saw Alfred the Great on the Canadian tracks last fall expect him to achieve an enviable three-year-old record.

nounced April 1. King James is likely to be top weight. Sam Hildreth has in addition to King James, three stable mates of that doughty equine champion. They are Firestone, Restigouche and Dalmatian.

James B. Keene has only put in one nomination for the initial New York handicap in Gramere.

E. Gaffney is having Albert Noble pointed for the race. George Odum has his star filly Trance in fine condition and expects that she will once again prove the folly committed by Mr. Keene in culling that splendid representative of his stable from his string in her early days.

Barney Schreiber's Jack Atkin who won the event in 1908, is being prepared for the Carter Handicap at Jacksonville, and numerous sharp betwixt the famous Sain horse will repeat his former victory.

The other entries are: Gloria, Prince Ahmed, Righteas, Mary Davis, Jack Parker, Palencia, Beauparc, The Squire, Belmont, Vase Mason, Pretend, Paumotero, Aronack, King Cobalt, Tony Bonero, Far West, Charles Hargrave, Berkeley, Quantico, Guy Fisher, Duke of Ormond and King Olympian.

August Belmont has purchased a filly John E. Madden the seven-year-old Navarre-Annot Lyle (dam of Provost and Annot) by Marcelline, Annot's dam, transferred from Hamburg Place to Nursery Stud.

The trainers are actively at work preparing their horses at the Metropolitan tracks. Mr. Fleischmann's best horses last year were Apache and Footpad. He got Apache in July, at Yonkers, after a selling race, from Wm. Walker, of Toronto, who brought Apache down from Canada. Footpad, who was a rather lightly made horse last year, has filled out some over winter.

Mr. Fleischmann has given Dullaire, his last purchase last year, to his brother Otto. Otto Fleischmann is a non-professional jockey who has ridden horses belonging to his brother's establishment in various gentlemen's races in the last few years.

Richard T. Wilson, Jr., has his horses quartered in one of the biggest stables at the Westchester Association's fine plant. They are in superb condition. Every two-year-old in the establishment is now getting ready for work. The older horses—Olambla, May River, Palencia, Beauparc, Canterbury, Brush Broom and Mexana—show marked improvement.

Frank Taylor is wintering Fitz Herbert for John Madden. Besides Fitz Herbert, Mr. Taylor is training three two-year-olds for Charles Kohler, the New York piano manufacturer, who recently purchased the Star Shoot stallion Uncle Sam from Hildreth and established him at a farm in the Ramapo Hills. Mr. Taylor purchased this youngster at Lexington last fall for Mr. Kohler, and Mr. Kohler is thinking of augmenting his racing stable.

HARNESS HORSE FUTURITIES.

List of Big Purse This Season For the Trotters and Pacers.

Taking all the futurities, old and new, at their fair estimated value, it is shown that from Detroit down to Lexington, the total amount to be awarded to trotting and pacing youngsters exclusively, will be nearly $125,000, as follows:

Horseman's Championship Stake, Detroit, $20,000. Championship Stallion Stake of American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders, North Randall, $15,000. Same association's Matron Stake, place not designated, $10,000. American Horse Breeders' Futurity, Boston, $12,500. Horse World's Stake, Syracuse, $10,000. Horse Review and Stock Farm Futurities, Columbus, $20,000. The Kentucky Futurity, Lexington, $21,000. Western Horseman's Futurity, Indianapolis, $2000.

The total amount for youngsters alone will be practically one-third of the total amount to be given for early closing stakes and purses in the entire chain of grand circuit meetings, a showing for the encouragement of the breeding industry and production of high-class youngsters which has never before been equaled in the annals of the American light harness horse breeding. It has been officially announced by the Detroit Driving Club that Dr. Stone of Burlington, Wis., will be the starter for the blue ribbon meeting.

One of the liveliest harness racing spots in the entire United States the coming season will be Hillsboro, R. I. There will be a separate race meeting at this track in July, August, September and October, each having a $1000 early closing purse.

Borgess, the very promising young trotter owned by W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central, was shipped to Readville early during the winter and will enter the training stable of Bob Procter, the man who brought out the world's champion trotting gelding, Uhlan, 3:02 1-4.

RUSHING TO NORFOLK.

Jamestown Track to Be the Future Opener of the Northern Running Season.

Owing to the number of applications for stalls at Jamestown, Secretary Gervais has arranged with the Country Club, a nearby neighbor, to house the overflow in their stables. According to all indications the time is not far distant when Norfolk will open and close the eastern racing season, as Benning was wont to do. This historic city will present an opportunity to horsemen to sit their charges for the Metropolitan tracks.

With such horsemen represented as R. F. Carmichael, John Schorr, Samuel Ross, C. C. Smithson, James McLaughlin, R. H. M. McKenzie, John Madden, P. S. P. Randolph, Barney Schreiber, David Dunlop, William Parish, Carter Hall, J. T. Temple, M. Burton, the Chelsea Stable, W. S. Defender, Frank Gardiner, William and John Glendon, William Garth and Green T. Morris the class of horses competing will be higher than were those at previous meetings.

It depends upon the weights as to whether or not C. L. Harrison will start Waldo in the Camen Handicap at the Lexington meeting. The event is virtually a preliminary to the Kentucky Derby, which will be
