And the blue eye shuts up when the spring blos soms fade ' So we'll choose for our emblem a sturdier thing, We will go to the mountains and worship it

Then a health to the Cedar-the Evergreen King Like that Evergreen, so shall our Friendship be

The perfume it carries is deeply concealed, Not a breath of rich scent will its branches i part; But how lasting and pure is the odour revealed In the immost and deepest recess of its heart ! It groweth in might and it liveth right long; And the longer it liveth the nobler the tree; Then health to the Cedar—the true and the strong, Like the Evergreen, so shall our Friendship be !

tremaineth unserred in the deluge of light,
When the flood of the sun-tide is pouring around;
And as firmly and bravely it meeteth the night,
With the storm-torrent laden, and the thunder cloud crowned;
And so shall all changes that Fortune can bring,
Find our spirits unaltered and staunch as the tree :

Cloud crowned;
 And so shell all changes that Portune can bring. Find our spirits unaltered and staunch as the tree:

EXTRAORDINARY CURES BY Holloway's Ointment.

EXTRAORDINARY CURES BY Holloway's Ointment. CURE '97 A DESPERATE CASE OF ERSIFICAS. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Joseph Gildon, Jun, a Farmer, East Keut, near Spilsby, Lincolnshire, 8th April, 1846. TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sis,—I have the gratification to announce to you most wonderful cure wrought upon myself, by the use of your Ointment and Pills. I had a severe attack of Erysipelas in my right foot, which extended along my ancle, and was attended with swelling and inflammation to an alterning degree, insomuch that I was unable to move without the use of cruches. I consulted a very eminent Phys-sician, besides other Medical men, but to no pur-pose. At last I tried your Ointment and Pills, when, strange to say, in less than two weeks the swelling and inflammation to an alterning degree, insomuch that I was unable to move without the use of cruches. I consulted a very eminent Phys-sician, besides other Medical men, but to no pur-pose.
