A TRIBUTE

(Acadia Bulletin.)
Editor Acadia Bulletin—Sir—Permit me through the medium of the Bulletin to bear personal testimony to the worth of one of our young men who has just fallen in battle, and through him to all the Acadia men who have enlisted to fight the battles of the Empire.
Shortly after accepting the commission as captain in the 219th O. S. H.
Bn., C. K. P., I looked around for some one to associate with to bear the burden supplement my limited military knowledge, and assist in directing "D" Company. I finally invited Capt. (then Lt.) H. H. Pince, who went overseas with the 6th M. R. to return for this purpose.
After considering the matter he sent me a letter in which he told me several personal reasons why he should like to return, among which was the illness of those dear to him, and he also said he should like to be associated with the Acadia boys in the 219th. For in while he almost decided to accept my invitation but he looked around and seeing the need there was to be tempted, I was much disappointed, but at the same time was forced to admire the splendid exhibition of spirit I like to consider the Acadia spirit—the spirit of fidelity to duty regardless of personal claims. He was a man large of body, large of mind, and large of heart, and Acadia mourns him.
GEORGE B. CUTTEN.

Among the many philanthropic institutions of the Queen of Denmark is that for training young girls for service. In pursuance of this plan the head cook of the royal kitchen receives pupils in domestic art, and the very fact of having learned in the queen's kitchen is enough to insure a girl's finding constant employment.

SIXTH UNIVERSITIES COMPANY.
Reinforcing the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

Recruiting has been going on steadily for the Sixth Universities Company, C. E. G. For more than a year now these companies have kept up a steady flow of exceptionally fine men as reinforcements for the famous Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, and the Sixth Universities Company is carrying on the good work.

These reinforcements have been remarkable for the type of men they have enlisted. Fully half of the men of the first companies have obtained commissions. At least ten officers are present with the P. P. C. L. I. have risen from the ranks of the universities companies, and many officers in other units are proud to claim connection with these same companies.

The sixth company is in no way inferior to its predecessors in this line.
Its strength at present is just 100 men, and already there are twelve men qualified as lieutenants in it. There are still a few vacancies for officers with the unit, which will in all probability be filled by men who have shown their worth in the ranks of the company.

Already a draft of men have been sent to England, and will soon proceed to France. Another draft will follow it soon, and the company will reinforce in this way. Any enquiries as to enlistment and service should be addressed to Officer Commanding, 6th Universities Company, C. E. F., Molson Hall, McGill University, Montreal.

St. John Retail Merchants Dollar Day, Wednesday, Aug. 23. Watch for blue and yellow official signs.
