WHOLESALE KILLING IN SAN DIEGO

Ex-Fireman Shoots Three Former Comrades

KILLS WIFE AND CHILD

Sent in False Alarm and Opened Fire on Men as They Answered the Call — Police Hunting for Murderer

San Deigo, Cal., Aug 1—Bert S. Durham, a former fireman, after shooting and killing one city fireman, mortally wounding a second and seriously wounding a third, sent a fire box from which he had sent a false alarm, in an effort for revenge, early today, went to his home and with a bludgeon beat his wife and little child to death. He then made his escape.

Nursing an old grudge against Fire Captain Sampsell under whom he had worked as engine driver, and on whose complaint he had been discharged, from the service for insubordination, Durham early today sent in a false alarm from the outskirts of the city. When Captain Sampsell and his crew came up Durham opened fire on the former workmates with a revolver.

At the first shot Driver Don Grant fell from his seat dead with a bullet in his head. At his second shot Hoseman Guy Elliott pitched to the ground with a bullet through the stomach. Durham then leveled his revolver at Sampsell and fired twice, both bullets piercing Sampsell's lungs. Two more shots fired at other members of the crew went wide. Durham drew another revolver and covered his retreat as he started to run from Assistant Chief Surdecor, as he disappeared in the darkness Durham shouted back to the chief: "Tell my wife I am going to kill myself."

The victims of the shooting were rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital in one of the hose wagons. Operations were performed on Sampsell and Elliott. Sampsell will probably die. Elliott has a chance. Within half an hour of the shooting a score of police officers and deputy sheriffs were on the scene in automobiles and had begun a man hunt. Owing to the darkness Durham reached home and slew his family and then fled again.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 1—Bert S. Durham, a discharged employee of the local fire department today ended a man-hunt that began early today by shooting himself through the head after he had killed three persons, including his wife and child and seriously wounding two others.

30 COTTON MILLS CLOSE FOR WEEK

New England Curtailment Means Idleness for 8,000 Operatives Until August 8

Fall River, Mass., Aug 1—Thirty cotton mills, owned by 12 corporations and employing 8,000 operatives, were shut down Saturday until August 8, for the purpose of curtailing production. A number of other corporations will be idle two days this week.

The drastic curtailment, which is in progress in the American textile industry, is having a beneficial effect on the goods market and an improvement is hoped for when the new cotton crop is available. The policy of curtailing the output is expected to continue until fall.

Biddeford, Aug. 1—The Pepperell cotton mills of Biddeford and those of the York Corporation of Saco, were closed Saturday. Work will be resumed August 8. It is understood that both corporations will shut down for another week later. There are about 15,000 cotton operatives in the two cities.

Whitinsville, Mass., Aug. 1—The Whitinsville cotton mills and the Linwood cotton mills at Linwood were closed Saturday until August 8. They employ about 800 hands.

Fiskdale, Mass., Aug. 1—Notices posted at the Fiskdale cotton mills announce that the plant will run but three days a week until further notice.

The Fiskdale mills recently resumed operations after a two weeks' shut down due to market conditions. The plant employs 600 persons and makes print cloths.

ENGINEER KILLED IN TRAIN COLLISION

Rome, N. Y.,—At 2.30 a.m., today a westbound light engine on the Central rail road running on track 2, about half a mile west of Criskany, became disabled, and the engineer, Bertram L. West, of Ravanna, N. Y., stopped to make repairs. The trainmen went back with a lantern to warn approaching trains. He had gone a short distance when a fast passenger train westbound, running on track 2 came along. The engineer was unable to check his speed in time to avoid a collision with the light engine. Engineer West, who was evidently under his engine, making repairs, was killed. The accident occurred about 1,300 feet west of a signal tower. Not much damage was done to either engine, and traffic was not much delayed.

BIG K. OF C. CONVENTION IN QUEBEC

First National Gathering in Canada of the Body

20,000 VISITORS

Will Discuss Collection of $500,000 to Establish Ten Chairs in Catholic University at Washington—W. J. Mahoney Representing Maritime Provinces

It is estimated, that twenty thousand visitors will be in Quebec this week on the occasion of the annual convention of the Knights of Columbus, which will be the first national gathering of the body on Canadian soil.

Arrangements have been made for special trains over both the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk lines, while there will be heavy western travel by means of boats of the Richelieu and Ontario Company, large parties from Toronto and nearby points having engaged accommodation by the water route. Montreal Knights will reach Quebec by special trains and one council has chartered a boat to take the members to the convention city.

New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago will send representatives in trains, while Washington, New Orleans and other points will have special Pullmans to carry visitors to Quebec. One party will travel from San Francisco in a special car.

The Knights of Columbus are international in character and their purpose is largely of a social nature with their Catholic origin always in view. The order possesses ceremonial in three languages, English, French and Spanish, being organized in countries where these tongues are spoken. In Canada the order is represented in every province with Councils from Charlottetown to Vancouver, and recently Councils have been organized in Newfoundland.

There are almost 1,500 subordinate Councils with a membership approximately 265,000 individuals.

One of the matters of public interest to be discussed at the gathering in Quebec is the details of the collection of $500,000 to establish ten chairs at the Catholic University of America, which is situated in Washington.

The order set out to collect this vast amount to establish endowments for the university and it is said, that the Supreme Knight will probably be in a position to announce that the Newfoundland left Saturday to represent this district at the convention. M. T. Cohinan and James Daly also went along, though they are not official representatives, but will participate in the festivities.

DENIES SETTLERS ARE RETURNING

Superintendent of Immigration Says it is Untrue That U. S. A. Settlers in Canada are Leaving

Winnipeg, Aug. 1—W. J. White, superintendent of Immigration agencies of the Dominion government, just returned from an extensive trip through the States, gives absolute denial to the statement published in several American papers to the effect that 15,000 United States settlers in Canada have returned to their former homes, because of the unfavorable season in the Canadian west.

He quotes special official reports from every part of entry in the west, showing that the number of dissatisfied settlers who have returned during 1910 has actually been less than in any year since the American rush started.

COWES REGATTA OPENED

German, English and American Yachts Competing

Cowes, Eng., Aug. 1—The great annual regatta of the Royal Yacht Squadron opened today in good sailing weather but with its social features robbed of much of their usual prominence by the death of King Edward. The chief race of the day was the handicap for big yachts. There were six starters: The Meteor, owned by the German Emperor; the Germania, the Shamrock; the Cicely, the Susanne and the American schooner Westward. The course covered fifty miles, the Germania, the Shamrock, then scratch boats. The Shamrock got away with a good start, but the Westward soon overhauled her and took the lead. At the end of the first round the Westward, which had a handicap of 6 minutes, 50 seconds, led the Germania by 17 and the Meteor by 21 minutes. The Shamrock crossed in second place but had more than forfeited her time allowance from the Westward.

The Westward held her advantage and finished the race in first place, taking the prize of sixty pounds sterling. The Shamrock won the second prize of twenty pounds sterling.

Boston, Aug. 1—The common drinking cup will be absent from public drinking fountains by order of the state board of health after October 1, in accordance with the act of the last legislature to prevent the spread of disease. The cups are forbidden also in public buildings, hotels, theatres, railroad cars, stations or ferry boats. Every one found will cost its owner $25 fine.

Dr. H. H. Crippen

Miss Le Neve, Dr. Crippen's Typist

SCOTLAND YARD OFFICIALS ARE SATISFIED THEY HAVE COMPLETED CHAIN OF EVIDENCE ON CRIPPEN

Formal Application Will be Made for the Extradition of the Doctor and Miss Le Neve—Case Likely to Come to Trial in September—Crippen Admits His Identity

Quebec, Aug. 1—(Special)—Dr. Crippen was taken to court this morning and arraigned on the charge of murder. He was remanded for fifteen days. An immense crowd saw him depart from the parliament buildings to the court house.

Crippen admitted the identity of himself and Miss Leneve.

London, Aug. 1—With a view to preventing the remote possibility of the escape of Dr. Crippen and Miss Le Neve, through a technicality, Scotland Yard today decided upon the advice of the attorney general, that so far as they control in the matter, all formalities involved in the extradition laws of Canada shall be complied with in the case of the prisoners under arrest at Quebec. Accordingly Inspector Dew was instructed to ask simply that the Canadian court remand the se...

Miss Ethel Clara Leneve, his paramour, fainted away as officers placed her under arrest.

Crippen, handcuffed, and closely guarded, was taken to cabin No. 8 while Miss Leneve was kept in cabin No. 3 which the pair occupied on the journey over. Here she was brought to by the ship's doctor and given woman's clothing by the stewardess and later cross-questioned by Inspector Dew.

Ended in Dramatic Manner

The long chase after Crippen and Miss Leneve ended this morning in a most dramatic manner. For days, presentiments, live and world-famed detectives had crowded Father Point awaiting anxiously for news of the Montrose and the fugitives she carried. At seven o'clock Sunday morning word came that she was twenty miles down the river slowly feeling her way through the blinding rain and fog. The procedure then boarded the government tug Eureka while Inspector Dew and Detectives McCarthy and Denis, disguised in oil-skins as pilots, went on board the pilot boat.

When they boarded the Montrose Dr. Crippen was walking the deck with Dr. Stuart, of the Montrose. Crippen appeared nervous, and enquired why so many pilots boarded the vessel. Dr. Stuart replied that possibly they were pilots returning after a trip.

When Inspector Dew walked up the deck, and when he got near to where Crippen and Dr. Stuart were standing, he stopped and beckoned to Crippen. He did not falter for a minute, but walked straight over to where the sleuth from Scotland Yard was standing. Dew took him by the arm and led him to the captain's room under the bridge, where the arrest was made by Detectives McCarthy and Denis.

Captain Was Suspicious

During the journey over the pair were under close surveillance by Captain Kendall, and his officers. They were scarcely out of Antwerp before Captain Kendall's suspicions were aroused and he communicated with the chief steward. The latter conferred with the bedroom steward in charge of cabin No. 3 who had already become suspicious of the "lad" but was afraid to speak of the matter. The captain's suspicions were first aroused by the hat worn by the younger "Robinson," as it was several sizes too large and stuffed with wadding.

On Crippen's clothing being searched, only a ten dollar bill, a watch and a penknife were found, but pinned to his undershirt, were found five ladies' diamond rings and a diamond pin. Miss Leneve also had a diamond brooch.

Crippen has proved himself a clever and resourceful man. Not only is he a cold-blooded murderer but he has shown the...

WHITELAW REID LIKES BRITAIN'S LOYAL TOAST

Thinks the U.S. Should Copy "The King, God Bless Him," Drinking to the President

London, Aug. 1—Whitelaw Reid, the American Ambassador to the Court of St. James, is of the opinion that the American fashion of toasting the President of the United States might be improved by copying the loyal English formula when drinking to the health of the British King.

Speaking at a banquet given by the British Institute of Mechanical Engineers to the visiting members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Mr. Reid said:

"The greatest good old custom in this country of responding to a toast to the British King, with the heartfelt exclamation, 'The King' God bless him.' Now, I sometimes think we Americans might wisely adopt the time-honored custom in toasting the President, and similarly say, 'The President, God bless him!'"

"For we cannot deny that toasts to the two great heads of the States of the English-speaking world are coming more and more to be drunk with the same loyal and patriotic hope for the continued sovereignty of the law."

FIFTY SAVED BY WIRELESS

Passenger and Crew of Steamer Burned off Peruvian Coast are Being Brought to Land

Lima, Peru, Aug 1—Saved by wireless, fifty passengers and the crew of a new steamship, being brought to port on the Unyali. The Huallaga was burned to the water's edge yesterday off the Peruvian coast, according to despatches received here, and three of her crew were killed in fighting the fire and attempting to quell the panic which followed close on the discovery of the blaze. It is reported that 200 bags of mail from New York were destroyed.

The Huallaga, an oil-burner of the Peruvian line, was bound from Panama. Only her wireless prevented a terrible disaster. The Unyali a sister ship and she took the burned vessel in tow when the fire was got under control, according to the advices, heading for Callao.

THE KING AND QUEEN LEAVE FOR ENGLAND

Great Interest in Spain Over Trouble With Vatican

COMMENTS OF PRESS

Roman Catholic Priests Preached Violent Sermons Against The Policy of Government—Cabinet to Carry Out Its Policy

San Sebastian, Spain, Aug. 1—King Alphonso and Queen Victoria left today to pay a visit to the Royal Family in England. They will stop at Rambouillet, France, to visit President Fallieres of the French Republic, on the way.

Madrid, Aug 1—With Catholics at Rome expressing that Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender, may raise the standard of revolt and the Catholics of the Basque provinces rise in insurrection and with the Socialists in Spain threatening disorder, the Imperial which has hitherto been unfriendly to Premier Canalejas, ranges itself upon the government side in the pending conflict with the Vatican. The Liberal press in general continues staunchly in support of the cabinet, which has been left a free hand to carry through its policy by the departure of King Alphonso and his queen for England.

The Imperial says:

"We are faithful members of the Roman Catholic church, but we have always regarded the issue not as a religious one but as a national problem involving the independence of the civil power. Not Spain, but the Vatican has created the present situation."

The Liberal press expressed especial indignation at the telegram of Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, endorsing the attitude of the Bishop of Almeria, who threatened to precipitate civil war and in telegrams to the Vatican placed their firm self property at its disposal for the conflict. Premier Aggarty Llorens, one of the Carlist leaders in Spain, left today for Frondsdorf, the Austrian residence of Don Jaime, to confer with the pretender. His late departure would indicate that Carlist plans for a rising are in no especially advanced state.

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS A NOTABLE GATHERING

Many Speakers of International Reputation — Impressive Services

New York, Aug. 1—The Roman Catholics in this city are already preparing to send delegations to the Eucharistic congress which is to be held at Montreal early in September. Word reached here that the congress will be the largest gathering of Roman Catholics ever held on the American continent. The principal speakers will be Cardinal Gibbons, Mgr. Nellos, Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal; Archbishop O'Connell, of Boston, Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, and Father Vaughan of London. One of the most impressive services of the congress will be the midnight mass for men in the church of Notre Dame. Another impressive service will be an open air mass at the foot of Mount Royal. Montreal's great park, The Cardinal Legate, Vincent Vanutelli, will carry the host in procession through four miles of streets. Protestants as well as Roman Catholics in Montreal will entertain the visiting prelates. Lord Strathcona has placed his town house at the disposal of Archbishop Bruchesi and several American archbishops will be housed there. The Cardinal Legate will be the guest of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

After the congress Cardinal Vannutelli will take charge of the Catholic summer school on Lake Champlain, will then go to Washington, where he will be received by President Taft, and will spend some time with Archbishop Glennon at St. Louis and Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore.

The Markets

Liverpool, Aug. 1—John Rogers & Co., of Liverpool cabled today that consequent upon the increase in numbers throughout the country trade in the Birkenhead market was very slow and prices showed a general decline of 1-4 cent per pound, full quotations being for states cattle from 14 1-2 to 15 1-4 cents per pound; Canadians, from 14 1-4 to 14 3-4 cents; and ranchers from 13 to 13 3-4 cents.

Glasgow, Aug. 1—Edward Watson and Ritchie report:—"Six hundred and five cattle on offer. Trade generally is rather slow. Our numbers being smaller, we experienced a good trade at prices as follows: Top steers, 16 cents; secondary, 14 1-2 cents; bulls, top quality, 13 1-4 cts.; secondary and inferior, 12 cts. per pound.

London, Aug. 1—The Zingari second innings, scored 132. Essex gentlemen won by an innings and 48.

SOMETHING FOR GENERAL FRENCH TO THINK OVER

New York, July 30—"Times" today ridicules General French's criticism of Canadian as a military man. It says:

"When did Canadians ever surrender? Is it on record that they ever surrendered in South Africa? General French himself was a hero of regrettable incidents, although he participated in the final triumph of General Roberts. It was in Canada that the general discovered the Canadians knew nothing of warfare. It was not in South Africa that he discovered that they could not ride hard and shoot straight and be on hand when wanted. It would seem that the gallant general might have learned some lessons there.

"The general thinks it well to come forward and patronize Canadians. We doubt that they will stand for it."

NATIONAL REGATTA ON THE POTOMAC

To be One of the Greatest Gatherings Ever Held

AUGUST 12 AND 13

Cosgrove and O'Neill and Other Fast Canadian Oarsmen to Participate—Winnipeg Four, Winners of Stewart Cup, Entered

Washington, Aug. 1—From present indications the national regatta of the American Association of amateur oarsmen, to be held this year on the Potomac river under the auspices of the Potomac Boat Club, will be one of the greatest gatherings of oarsmen ever held in the United States. Two days, Friday and Saturday, August 12 and 13, will be devoted to the races. Crews and individuals southern from all parts of Canada and the United States will enter the contest.

The local committee believes that the excellence and number of the entries mark that some international records will be broken. Particularly does this belief hold true, it is pointed out, in regard to the senior eights and the single sculls. Among the entries in the former are the Argonauts of Toronto, the Detroits of Detroit, the New York Athletics, the Vespers, of Philadelphia, the Nassaus, of New York, and the Potomacs of this city. In the single sculls are expected Cosgrove, the Canadian Champion; O'Neill, of Halifax and Miller, of the New York A. C. Cosgrove has just returned from Henley, where has was defeated by a small margin in the international diamond sculls. Entries for the contest closed last night.

All the winning crews at the regatta of the Canadian Association of aquatics oarsmen to be held at St. Catherines, Ont., last July of the greatest galaxy, and at this year's Potomac regatta. The races here, therefore, will determine the championships of the year for the various Canadian and United States crews.

In addition to the 12 races, the various single and double sculls, four and eight oared races, there have been added junior eight and war canoe races. All these races will be rowed over a mile and a quarter course extending from a point off the government wharf opposite Potomac Park to a point 200 yards west of the new highway bridge across the Potomac. Former regattas here have been held on a course further up the river.

One of the crews which will attract much attention will be the senior four from Winnipeg, Man., which about two weeks ago won the Stewart cup at the English Henley.

The United States Secretary of the Treasury has designated the revenue cutter Apache to keep the course, which will be 200 feet wide from from all boats and participating in the contest.
