by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc to succeed Father McDermott at Sussex. He will enter upon his duties towards the end of the month; Father Mallette, curate, is officiating in the meantime. Father Hannigan is a native of Milltown (N. B.). He was educated at St. Mary's College, Van Buren (Me.), St. Joseph's and at the Grand Seminary, Quebec. He was ordained in the Cathedral at St. John on March 10, 1903, by His Grace Archbishop Casey, at that time Bishop of St. John. Father Hannigan has served in several parishes of the diocese, being parish priest at St. Martin before his transfer to Petersville.

A fire was discovered burning on the northeast corner of the lake at Rockwood Park yesterday afternoon, near the site of the pavilion that was burned a few years ago. It made quick work of dry deadwood and underbrush and the engine from King street east station was sent for. One thousand feet of hose were stretched and the blaze was beat-
