Creary Says Semi-ready Has Always Been Sold Below "Fair Profit" Fixed by Government Officials

SALE STARTS SATURDAY

George Creary, of the Semi-ready Store, says that in the west the chambers of commerce have fixed the "fair profit" on clothes at 83 per cent. "In all the twenty-one years of Semi-ready tailoring," said Mr. Creary, "the label in the pocket has enforced a price on the retail merchant of 90.2 per cent. This is less than the large departmental stores admitted before the high cost of living commission which made sworn equity into casts and profits. "Not only is our profit lower, but at stated intervals we sell clothes at cost and below. "On Saturday next we will start one of our semi-annual sales at one-fifth of the retail price—equal to 25 per cent of wholesale cost—which allows as just a 5 per cent for the payment of tailors for alteration, for rent and for selling expenses. Naturally, every garment will be sold at a loss, for our expenses are never less than 28 per cent. "At one time we only sold 'Lionels'—that is suits and overcoats that were not quick sellers, but this year we will include every garment in the shop—yes, even the staple black and navy blue serge, for I don't believe in hiding any garment. Every customer can have the run of the shop. "Even the odd trousers will be included this year in the big sale. Likewise the raincoats which I specially imported from England—for our rainy climate is much like that of dear old England. "I have special reasons this year for making this a sale without reserve. "Next spring, when the higher costs of woolens and of labor enhance the price of clothes, the buyers at our big winter sale will pat themselves on the back, 'I can assure you,' concluded Mr. Creary.

WOMEN LEARN TO CUT HAIR OF HUSBANDS.

London, Dec. 31.—Hair-cutting for husbands is the latest study of the women belonging to the Charmister Women's Institute.

The "woman barber" of Regent street does not see why hair-cutting should not be the achievement of every mother. "I have taught many women to cut their boys' hair," said Miss Rogalski. "If there were a demand for it I would take a dozen mothers to a boys' hostel one evening every week and teach them how to cut hair."

"During the war I taught many women who afterwards went to France to cut the soldiers' hair in hospitals as voluntary work. "Women are much more adapted to the work than men; their touch is lighter. "Men barbers are usually very effeminate. "The conditions of work are also suitable for a woman—warm, clean and comfortable. "A lesson once a week is all that Miss Rogalski thinks her mother-pupils would need; they could practice at home. "There is nothing in it, really," she said, "but practice."

BOYS' PARLIAMENT.

The closing session of the boys' parliament of the maritime provinces was held on Wednesday at St. David's church and was voted a great success. After luncheon at noon a number of bills were read for the second time and were passed on the third reading during the evening. Resolutions of thanks to the hosts and hostesses were passed, as well as to the trustees of St. David's, the Y. M. C. A., the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., to H. Usher Miller and Messrs. Buckley, Sidenious and Gregg, and others. The prorogation was carried out with the singing of the national anthem.

COOL GERMAN COUPLE.

Paris, Dec. 31.—Julius Marken, a German engineer, who had been residing in Paris with his wife since last August and wished to form a company for the exploitation of a German patent had succeeded in selling to French engineers a patent concerning making patterns on glass.

A company was to have been formed, when detectives arrested Marken and his wife, who declared that they were able to enter France without difficulty and were never asked for their identification papers. They are charged with espionage under the act of 1886.

THIEVES' ORGY IN FRANCE

Paris, Dec. 31.—The extraordinary number of thefts which have been taking place recently in French railway stations may be gauged from the fact that 1,189 arrests were made in six weeks of persons caught while attempting to steal passengers' luggage and other articles.

OREGON COLLEGE HENS SET NEW EGG RECORDS

Corvallis, Ore., Dec. 31.—A dozen hens at the Oregon Agricultural College's farm at Salem, Ore., have set a new world record for egg production, James S. Dryden, professor at the college, has announced.

Each of these hens in one year laid more than 300 eggs, the best producing 330 and two others 323. All these hens, according to Professor Dryden are of the strain that several years ago developed Lady Duff, the first hen to have laid more than 300 eggs a year in a trap nest. Her record was 308.

CAT GOES FISHING.

London, Dec. 31.—The busy little boat building community of Stratford-on-the-Avon possesses a cat that subsists almost entirely on the small fishes which it catches in the Thames. When hungry he calls his catches; at other times he leaves the fish to the sport of the youngsters who always swarm around him, and occasionally he has been known to take his fish home, only a few yards from the river-side.

Cardiff, Wales, Jan. 2.—A young boy named Davies, while playing with a toy balloon, caused it to slip down his throat. The balloon became inflated and, blocking the windpipe, suffocated him.

ANTI-FOOT-BINDING CRUSADE

"The Heavenly Feet Association" is Conducting It in China. Kailfeng, China, Dec. 31.—An organization has been launched here by leading Chinese of the city to aid in putting a stop to the ancient Chinese custom of binding the feet of female children. Songs have been composed by members deprecating the practice of foot-binding and students of boys' schools are being asked to take the pledge, "I will not marry a woman with unnatural feet."
