

NOT BAD.—A Washingtonian in his song says:
When a young lady signs the pledge,
It's just as good as two,
For when her sweet-heart finds it out,
He's got to sign it too.

A young man who was crossed in love attempted suicide recently by taking a dose of yeast powder. He immediately rose above his troubles.

"I live in my love's eye," said languishing Jones. "I believe you, my boy," said rude Brown, "for she's got a sty in it."

To all whom it may concern.—Some people who set up for being funny fellows had much better sit down again.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.—The newspapers are agitating for an abolition of this tax on their circulation, all uniting in condemning it as an imposition. We have nothing new to propose, except that the Press of the Dominion strike next summer, and go on a week's excursion.

—Albert County must next suffer. It has so been ordained. We do not know the extent of the infliction, but we believe it is something over a score of new Justices.—Post.
