TORONTO, MAY 29, 1903
 The Senate has killed so many Bills that it just deserves to be hanged.
 Many women who consent to form, or rather deform, their bodies, whereas what they should do is to use common sense in forming and reforming their minds.

In the Temple of Mammon, W. R.
 Brock, M.P., remember, has undoubtedly earned the position of sidesman, but on the charge of progress the place of foot man is his by right beyond dispute.

If the Dominion and Provincial Governments continue appointing commissioners, they will soon not be a corporal's guard of the party in power left to pursue the peaceful life of a private citizen.

The member for Centre-Toronto speaks of "the men who have respect for themselves." Mr. Brock, M.P., don't forget that it is undoubtedly among the number, but so far his name has not been discovered in the list of those who have the respect of their fellow-citizens.

When W. R. Brock, M.P., rises to his feet, under the misapprehension that he has something in his mind worth saying, he sits down and says nothing. He sits and does nothing, and then he thinks of "resuming his seat" in Centre-Toronto at the next election, his wisest course will be to take to the cellars of his warehouse and stay there till the storm shall have blown over.

Did it ever strike the gentle reader that the coming union and the whole party assumed by the clergy are supposed to leave an "I am holier than thou" impression on the common herd? Christ apparently paid more attention to what he said and did than to the clothes he wore. But then we are told that "He went about doing good," and that, perhaps, accounts for the great difference between Him and His professional followers.

Amidst must have slept badly the night after W. R. Brock, M.P., challenged him for the championship by declaring that "only 10 per cent. of the workers in Toronto are labor union men." To be sure to the shame of the capitalistic system which Mr. Brock is a defender—he it is said about 80 per cent. of the "workers" of Toronto are women and children; but of the male adults certainly more than 30 per cent. belong to labor organizations—including those unions by law, viz., doctors, lawyers, clergymen, civil engineers, architects, dentists, druggists, etc.—Amidst must have over the belt forthwith, and give Toronto another championship.

Lord Roscher thinks the colonies should be represented in the Imperial Parliament before any step is taken toward a preferential tariff. Perhaps they should, my lord, but don't you know that amongst all the politicians in Canada not one represents the able to honestly represent the Dominion, or any considerable percentage of Canadians? If you want the capitalistic class in Canada represented at Westminster, just choose any member of the Senate, and all but about two members of the House of Commons, and you'll have what you want.
 Take them, as many as you like, and keep them for the good of Canada. What we really desire here is an opportunity to attend to our own affairs without interference by the paid tools of capital in Parliament and on the bench. If we can get this, you are welcome to turn Westminster into a mummy gallery of Canadian politicians.

Mr. Brock, M.P., we'll please him by giving the title, while he has, to the "long-speeches" of "this country being terrorized" by international unionism. We had not heard of it before, and when told about it our six-year-old hopeful said he said it was a lie. Mr.
 Brock has probably had a disagreeable attack of nightmare, or perhaps he mistook a prick of conscience (if that intangible cause still exists) for the ardent love of gain for the stab of a unionist's stiletto. But the old gentleman should suppress his nervousness, instead of communicating his fears to others, for there is no real cause for alarm. If he only knew it, even he would enjoy himself more—or have reason to anyway—under the conditions international unionism desires to bring about.
 Mr. Brock, M.P., have an eye opened about his supposed importance and worrying out his luxurious looks in fears for the safety of his flthy lucre. Cheer up, Mr. Brock, M.P., have an eye opened
 about his supposed importance and worry-
 the safety of his flthy lucre. Cheer up, Mr. Brock, M.P., have an eye opened
 about his supposed importance and worry-
 the safety of his flthy lucre. Cheer up,

"I am prepared to meet the laboring people anywhere, and to convince any honest, reasonable man that there are two sides to this question." International unionism—W. R. Brock, M.P., in the House of Commons.
 If Mr. Brock, M.P., will pay an unannounced visit to the homes of some of his porters or shipmen at the time they are having their evening meal and stay for the evening, we are inclined to think he will see one of the sides to the labor question that he does not understand, or pretend does not exist. "I am prepared to meet the laboring people anywhere," that is just what we object to. One side of it is that the men who work the best get seriously a decent living—in many cases do not—while their employing capitalists pile up fortunes so large that they can only be used to gratify their vanity or be left for their children to board or squander. The other side seems to be the perpetuation of that system which has doctored toil to misery during the ages, and the assurance to the millionaire landowners, the Norfolks, the Deronschires and the Bueclungs, of their unearned and unmerited fortunes.

The battle of the British workers has been well fought, and it cannot be far from a finish. Let them stand persistently for the taxation of the ground rents, and it cannot be much longer delayed.
 It has been gaining remarkable strength. Chamberlain is ambitious to stand forth as the great ruler of this mighty empire, he would like to have his name handed down to posterity as the man who moulded the parts into one mighty unity; but at the same time he hesitates not to try to rivet still more tightly the shackles which labor has had to wear.

There was one Joseph who deprived the people in Egypt of their land and thus reduced them to bondage. Now another Joseph comes with a similar proposal, that the real owner of the land should be the laborer, and the farmer should be a tenant, and the land should be divided into small lots, and the laborer should be the owner of the land, and the farmer should be a tenant, and the land should be divided into small lots, and the laborer should be the owner of the land, and the farmer should be a tenant, and the land should be divided into small lots, and the laborer should be the owner of the land, and the farmer should be a
