London, June 12 .- About 50,000 British troops are within 50 miles of the maranding Boers, north of Kroonstad, and they are expected, of course, to make short work of them. Nevertheless, outside of the slender war office telegrams no one knows what is going on.

"Stonham reports that many were everely wounded and the remainder of the Fourth Derbyshire and details of prisoners, except six of the rank and file, are in his camp. All the wounded are in the camp lately occupied by the Fourth Derbyshire. Enquiries are being made as to the names."

It is inferred that the Boers captured 500 men and as late as June 10th held positions cutting off the British forces north of Kroonstad from reinforcements. Another dispatch from General Forestier Walker says General Methuen was fighting within ten miles of Heilron on June 8th. It is as follows: "Capetown, June 10.-Kelly-Kenny reports from Bloemfontein this morning that Methuen, with the greater part of his division, was fighting early in the morning of June 8th, 10 miles south of Heilbron where Colville was reported to work." be with the Highland brigade. Boers appear to be in sufficient strength to separate all the British forces north and south of a line stretching some 50 miles between Roodeval and Heilbron. Methuen's march up to the latter place seems somewhat in the nature of a movement for the relief of Colville. The only British officer left at Roodeval appears to be the doctor in charge of the hospital, which is full of wounded.

What has happened to the troops immediately north of Roodeval is still a subject for conjecture.

The ministerial caucus at Capetown has resulted unfavorably to Premier Schreiner, only ten supporting him, and Mr. Schreiner has given notice of his intention to resign. The question at issue is Mr. Schreiner's desire to introduce immediately bills punishing the colonial rebels and indemnifying the governmen for acts committed under martial law.

There is no further word of Gen. Buller's progress. Reports from Maseru, Basutoland, June 9th, say the Boers around Ficksburg refuse to surrender and severe fightgap. The railway is only partially defended, and as General Kelly-Kenny has hurried all the available troops northsituation in southeast corner of the Orange River colony is unchanged, that the Derbyshires is estimated at from 600 Gen.
