The lecture hall of the Natural History Society was well fielled yesterday afternoon to hear Mrs. G. U. Hay lecture on "Another Word About the English Song Birds." The lecture was descriptive of a trip taken by Dr. and Mrs. Hay to England about a year ago. Mrs. Hay dwelt especially upon the birds in Lorna Doone, Devonshire, the scene of the well known novel. She described the manners and songs and spoke most interestingly of the birds.

A largely attended meeting of the N. B. Military, Veterans' Association was held in their rooms last evening. The meeting was called to make arrangements for the annual dinner of the association. ing Basket Ball Match Last Night

SCORE 14 TO 11

In a match abounding in brilliant plays and witnessed by the largest number of persons in attendance at a basket-ball game for some time, the Portlands were successful in downing their old rivals, the Algonquins, last evening, by a score of 14 to 11.

The match was played on the Y. M. C. A. court and was the first in the series of three for the senior cham-the players on both sides. The Indians were strong on the defense.

In the first half the Portlands rolled up a score of 10 to their opponents's.

The Algonquins took a brace in the second half and by good shooting succeeded in landing many baskets. Excitement was at a high pitch throughout the halves and remained so until time was called.

The match was delayed for a few minutes during the second half on account of one of the players meeting with a slight injury.

Ed. Crawford refereed and his decisions apparently met with general approval.

many outside cracks are entered. Altogether the field of skaters is one of the fastest that has ever faced the starter in any sport in years. Almost every man entered in the events has already won several laurels.

The Montreal skaters, who will reach the city at noon today, are the cream of Upper Canadian performers on the steel blades. Finlayson especially is recognized as being one of the fastest amateurs in the sport today and can be counted upon to give a good account of himself. Wheeler is the undisputed backward champion of the world and holds the senior boys' record.
