SUN SPECIAL SHORT STORY

NURSE HELEN.

fore Ingraham sees him again."

"Will you send a telephone message used to such requests, and this particu-

"Yes." Derrick tried to think clearly, to keep his grip on things before the grayness should come again. "Call up

"You must not excite yourself," said the nurse calmly. "You could not possibly travel to Pittsburg tomorrow.

Derrick stared at her, She thought he was Barker. And her eyes were dark blue, almost hazel. And she was

"I will send the message tonight,"

And Derrick smiled for the first time in many days, and went to sleep with-out the gray void around him. She would keep her word. Yates would at-tend to the rest. They would be able to follow up the tip. He wondered to follow up the tip. He wondered vaguely which of the boys would be sent to Pittsburg to cover the barons'

end of the story, and then he smiled again, remembering the little nurse with the close curved lips and

The next day Yates came to see him

Nates himself, clean shaven and cold-blooded, but with the glimmer of appreciation in his eyes as he saw Bark-

"It went in this morning," he told kick-up over Barker's disappearance. Some said he was dead. But they thought he was simply laying low, to turn up high and dry at the meeting.

Now they've sent Strogund since the Derrick grinned happily. He had had an idea it would be that way. And Barker was watching them, grimly, understandingly, his face looking oddly incongruous in its halo of white bandages. Yates nodded to him.,

"Badly knocked out, Barker?" he

When he rose to ge, Yates gripped

Barker there," she added, seriously.

"They had an extra out again tonight," the little nurse was saying.

"The strike has been settled by ar-

"God bless, Strogund!" said Derrick,

You are to leave in the morning, perhaps before I come on. Don't work hard at first, and you'll be all right.

"What's your name, nurse from Pittsburg?" asked Derrick, looking up

She flushed. It is against the rules doctors in Bellevue, but they haven't for nurses to flirt with fellow nurses

"Helen," she said, "Helen Hayward.

how we did it, but I do, and I think cissed it. There was no one to deny

(Copyright, 1906, by Ruby Douglas.)

CAUGHT THE DOG

A certain Irish officer responsible fo g the victorious terrier through the

CONSTRUCTIVE PENALTY.

The editor of an Italian newspaper

The poor scribe, with tingling ears, has replied by blowing out his adversary's brains in exactly the same fashion and kindly requesting him hence forth to regard himself as a dead man. Any-further letters from the corpse will be sent unread to the dead letter office.—

'that's the sort of dog I likes itration, but the strikers won.

urse added, gently :

at the dark blue eyes.

was a very decent, timely thing

"The old man

"But not done for yet,"

"There has been a general

er two beds away.

extra came out."

asked, pleasantly.

Derrick's hand.

couldn't go."

to do, Derry," he said. will appreciate it."

ue eyes who thought that he was she said, and walked away.

(By Izola For rester.)

The first recollection Derrick had of ing beside him, the girl nurse and an her was very hazy. There had been the fight outside Kid Murray's. He remembered that, every detail of it. For nearly a week he had been waiting for it to comoff, on a tip from the union secretary. night that Barker had landed from Pittsburg they had prepared his reception in memory of the speeches he had made before a bunch of coal barons. He had been falthless, Barker had; he had dallied, and parleyed, and dined, and hobnobbed, and, as Murray said, played the fool generally, and the of it all had made him heady. And this while thousands of strikers waited on his word, and their children and wives waited for daily bread.

It was not wise of Barker. Even Derrick could see that, and Derrick was merely reporter for what Murray called "the pink sheet." So the night that Barker returned to make his explanatory address in Central Hall, Derrick was on hand to see the fun. He saw it. Not only that, but he was right down in the middle of it, and when the boys made a dash for Barker as he tried to glide out the back window, he went with them, not knowing exactly why, but crazy with the sight of the running fox, like the rest of the

They caught him outside of Murray's and those who could not get their hands on him began to throw things. Some of the things went astray and the melee was cleared, and Barker had been thrown up by the tide into an ambulance, Derrick, the "pink sheet" reporter, was beside him with a battered cranjum and a faintly nto unconsciousness, of having got a on the other papers. But the "beat" never came out, because for days the "pink sheet' revorld spun around him in gray circles like a view of the fifth heaven. Then gradually out of the circling grayness distinguished one shape that came and went with more tangibility than the other dreams. And one morning he opened his eyes and saw two real objects, clearly, without the gray film.

They were Nurse Helen and Barker. Barker lay a couple of beds away from him. He could see the face on the pillow. The redness had left it, and some of the unctuous mildness. The outline of the profile looked harsh and almost forcible against the white

Derrick glanced up at the nurse. She was dressing the wound on his head, swiftly, deftly, easily, impersonally. A ward surgeon in white came by, stopped and bent forward to examine the briefly and went on.

And suddenly Derrick changed his mind. He did not want to leave. He wanted to stay there forever and let and wrap him up and ease him. Then he thought of Barker.

The nurse looked startled for an instant. At least her eyes lost their im-personal look, and met those of Der-

Yes. He will not be out for sevweeks," she said, quietly. Derrick remembered swiftly. Several ceks. That would carry him past the tenth, and the tenth was the decisive day in Pittsburg. And if Barker vere not on hand at that arbitration meeting, to dally and parley and fool might result. There was only one man to send in his place, Strogund, and if ley, no fooling. He would win the

"Have I been here long?" he asked. The nurse was clearing the table be-side the bed of bandages and bottles. Derrick noticed that her hair was reddish brown beneath her cap. He could see the little curls around the edges. "Two weeks ago yesterday you were brought in,' she replied. "It is the Derrick tried to sit up in bed. "Two weeks—" he gasped, and dropped heavily back on his pillow.

"You must not do that," said the girl, severely. "You have had a high girl, severely. "You have had a high fever and are still very weak. Don't you sit up again."

She went on and Derrick closed his pass eyes. The grayness swept around him, yet. circling, wheeling, waving, until he could not stop himself, and was lost passed any rule barring patients as "Mine's Derrick-Wilfrid Derrick."
He lowered his voice so that Barker When he awakened it was could not hear. "I'm going to see you,
"Nurse Helen, after I get out of this place tomorrow, because you and I broke that strike. You don't know night. There were two figures stand-you're a brick. May I, Nurse Helen?" "Yes," said Nurse Helen, under her breath; and Derrick held one of the slim white hands close to his lips and ABSOLUTE SECURITY.

Genuine

Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of

Breukspood

See Fac-Simile Wrapper Belo ery renall and as easy to take as sugar. CARTER'S FOR HEADACHE

OURE SICK HEADAGHE.

RATTLESNAKE

FOR DINNER

NEW YORK, July 31—The big py then, fourteen feet long, in the Cen tral Park menagerie, and a full grown attlesnake had a fierce fight in the cage yesterday, the python finally succeeding in conquering its enemy and then swallowing it, just as it dissed of a small alligator some tim "Dr. Ingraham said he might leave to-morrow. I will be on again at 7. You had better not let them take him been at the time, but it made no attempt to help its companion or avenge It was barely above a whisper, but she heard and came to the bedside.

And they were chums too They were a male and a female and had in the park only a week. Philip Raub of Dallas, Pa., sent them as a present to Director Smith. A letter came with them saying that their poison fangs had been drawn. A close was being kept on them in the park to see if they would raise a new set of poison teeth. The newcomers were about four feet Yates. Tell him that Barker is laid up in Bellevue with a smashed head, and can't go to Pittsburg tomorrow. Tell him—oh, hang it, if I only could get on the wire for half a minute!" twelve rattles. From this it was sup-posed that the snakes were about fifteen years old, as it is said that the first rattle comes on the third year and an additional one each year therestructed the keeper to put the new arrivals in the cage occupied by the family of pythons. There are five members of this family, the largest being about fourteen feet long and the smallest about seven. Some time ago the keepers gave the name of "Eats 'Em Alive" to the biggest one, his disposition to make things disap

The rattlers explored their new home from end to end. They had the floor to hemselves, for the pythons were in the pool of warm water. The den is enclosed by glass on three sides. In the centre of the floor are two trees The pythons are fond of coiling the tops of the trees and sleeping there after feeding time, which occurs once a month, but recently they have at one end of the cage, as they are

During the shedding process they are nearly blind and are inactive. The mers did not venture into the water, nor did they try to climb the trees, but they crawled about the floor as though looking for the way The glass sides were a puzzle to them closely to observe them they so their rattles as a warning. It was this rattling that bro the fight. The big python had gone through the shedding process earlier than its mates, had on a new coat when the Pennsylvania visitors arrived and had recovered its sight and activity. By the moon it was nearly time for the python's dinner. The py-The newcomers were at the other end of the cage rattling away as usual at the visitors outside the glass. The female started out on another exploring trip. With head up in the air she

That was all, but it left Derrick radiantly joyous. When the nurse came moved toward the pool. nd, he couldn't help it. He had to The big African snake worked its tell some one, and he told her, while she dressed his head. It was after six fourteen feet of length from the pool and began to glide across the floor. then. At seven she went off duty for the night. When he had finished, she movements, but when it got half way was smiling, too, and her eyes were its body into several half coils "I am glad for you. Yesterday I the head pointed toward the approachthought that you were Barker, and I didn't want to send the message. I ing ratler. There was a businesslike look about this attitude that aroused am from Pittsburg, and we know about the suspicions of the other snake.

There was a sudden movement of the fellow; its head shot forward and "I knew it didn't matter, so long as the half coils straightened out. rattler was on the watch and was polish denseness of her. Didn't mat-er! He looked over at Barker, and ing itself into a coil and raising an

The python moved forward and to one side a few feet, and when it next piced over the smashed head that hurled its head forward the rattler unlimbered its coils and made a coun ter strike with head and body. There was a flashing of snake as the two writhed and twisted. Neither took time to coil again. The smaller one bit the big body of the foe, pulled out and coiled again. In a flash the python's coll came around the rattler's. The rattler's tail stuck out of the mass, ratling fainter and fainter and then ceased to ratile. The conqueror un-rolled itself and swallowed the corpse head first. To save the other rattler it was put in a small wooden box with a wire covering.

AGED LOVERS MAY WED THIS WEEK,

BOSTON, July 30.-The marriage en agement of 81-year-old George E. Luzarder of Whitman to Mrs. Lydia C. Alger, aged 64, of Alger street, Brockton, which was announced Saturday, has attracted much attention, where Im, for Bellevue had not barred love has attracted much attention, where rom the patients yet, and Barker was both are well known. It is expected the marriage will take place in a few

Mr. Luzarder is one of the best known of David A. Russell post, G. A. R., of that town. He has been married be-A certain Irish officer responsible for dog licenses had a, system of discovering his victims. He knocked at the side door of every house, and if a dog barked immediately demanded that the owner show his license. Every dog must have its day, however, and one day last week this collector reached the street with his lower sarments nearly intact. "Bedad," he said, eye-Mr. Luzarder is also a "forty-Niner," and went to California when the gold Oressa Smith of Malden, Mass. fever first struck the country. San sons are: Henry of New Westminster Francisco was then a handful of huts. B. C.; John of Ansonia, Conn.; Archive and in his younger days he travelled Wilberforce at home. The funeral took with a minstrel company. He can sing place Wednesday from his late residand dance about as well as ever he could. During the civil war he saw ago Mr. Luzarder went to California, house and grave. A large number and was near San Francisco when that from different parts of the county asailings, "that's the sort of dog I likes o see out o' me sight."—New York

> Mrs. Alger is the widow of Orlando again that, Alger, of Brocton, and a promient member of the Baptist church in that city., A warm friendship sprang up between the couple when they met, and when Mr. Luzarder proposed marriage he was promptly accepted. Mr. Luzarder in speaking of his future wife. der, in speaking of his future wife, wife and she is the woman I want. I treatment of everyone whom he met, and his kindly manner and hearty queer that I am going to get married greeting will long be remembered by lood always, everywhere 100 Reward, for any lame

TUTTES ELIXIR

Sold by all druggists and by
C. H. R. Crocker. South Farmington, N. S.
uddington & Marritt, 55 Charlotte St., St. Johne, N. S. g as I did twenty-five years ago.' Mrs. Alger said: "Yes, I am going o marry Mr. Luzarder soon. I am sure we will be very happy together. This week Mr. Luzarder and myself are going to my former home in Nan-

"PUNCH" AND MR. HALDANE.

The following verses in Punch lly 18, by Owen Seaman, are of unsual strength, and will no doubt atract much attention. They are based pon Mr. Haldane's remark that the untry "will not be dragooned into nscription"—which, in other words, means, says Punch, that it is "the in-alienable right of the free-born British citizen to decline to lift a finger in his

O city clerk, in whom the hopes are of England's manhood, let me talk With you whose pen is mightier than the sword (And far, far safer, too.) Soon you will trip to some salubrious pluck delight from Southend Plaunting beneath a so-called Panam Beside the so-called sea.

There you will blow the expense and softly lie some hotel abutting on And have your food (en served you by

A waiter from the Rhine. Him you will treat with well-deserved contempt, Poor Teuton, seared with vile Conscription's brand, Not like yourself, a gentleman ex-

From duty to his land.

You are a free-born city clerk, and That you can buy the necessary mies that undertake to man the

And Tars to walk the waves sesides, the leisure hours in which you slack Are owed to Sport—the primal law; You have to watch a game or back A horse you never saw.

Teuton breed: nere's a man has

His Fatherland at need. He sings his "Wacht am Rhein," and, Wants watching with a rifle

When you've invited Heaven to "save the King" You think you've done your share.

And drill a likely hole in human You have no discipline and couldn't

A haystack, not for nuts. His women-folk are safe in their appeal To his protection when the bullets skirl. While your "flonsy" - well, I really Quite sorry for the girl.

For this por "conscript" whom the tyrants grind, Though he may miss your British freedom's scope,

Your legs your only hope. So doff your hat to him when next

you would find

And pray that, when his prentice If you should cross him

On Sunday morning, at his home at Albert Mines, after an illness of only

He'll give you time to run. JAMES W. SMITH, J. P.

fourteen days, James W. Smith passed spent in the community in which he was born 72 years ago. Mr. Smith was well known in Albert county in a business, social and political way, as during his earlier years he had taken an active part in political way. peacefully away, after a useful life an active part in politics, and up to the time of his illness, carried on a large lumbering and mercantile business. A wife and a grown-up family but lost his wife many years ago. left to mourn their loss. The daugh-Luzarder is also a "forty-Niner," ters are: Mrs. Hettie Beck and Mrs. sons are: Henry of New Westminster, Mr. Luzarder is of a musical turn, of Vancouver; Charles of St. John, and ence, interment taking place in the cemetery at Albert Mines. Rev. I. N. Parker conducted the services at the city was destroyed. He lives with his sembled to pay the last tribute of a grandson, Charles A. Whitman, on spect, to meditate upon the shortner sembled to pay the last tribute of reof human life, and to be reminded once

> "Time, like an ever rolling stream, Bears all his sons away."

Mr. Smith was a man of refine tastes and more than ordinary intellirence, having been an assiduous reader of both prose and poetry, and had in his possession a number of valuable books. He was gentlemanly in his

Standing Offer URGE HUB TO AID IRISH EXPOSITION

Delegates from the Emerald Isle Touring America.

Seek Display from Boston and Bay State -Want Shipment of Historical Relics - Are Much Encouraged

BOSTON, July 30 .- The Very Rev. Patrick Lalley of Galway, and Col. C. M. Hackett of Dublin, arrived in Bos ton yesterday and will be in the city several days representing the historical section of the international exposi-May, 107. It is probable that they will appoint a committee of local Irishmen to look after the interests of the expos-ition in this vicinity, and during their stay in Boston they will also endeavou to secure a number of exhibits. The Rev. J. Phalen, of Sibley, Ia., is with the representatives, having travelled with them from New York as a member of the committee in charge of the United States share of the exposition. Col. Hackett and Fr. Lalley spen the day yesterday at the home of James F. McGrath of Wobun, an old friend of the latter. The men had een each other in over 20 years, in fact since their boyhood days in Ireland, and most of the day was spent in reminiscences and intalking over old times. This morning the representatives will tives will meet several members of local Irish societies at their headquarters in Young's Hotel, and will remain in the city until Tues-day or Wednesday, when they will

Fr. Lalley and Col. Hackett arrived in New York some 10 days ago and since then have visited Saratoga, Washington and Philadelphia. Their reception in each of these places has een very cordial and they have met Father Lalley is well known in Ire-land for the interest he has taken in the technical education of the youth of that country. Col. Hackett is also well known and has a beautiful place just outside Dublin. Both have taken a great part in the preparation for the exposition, which it is thought is do much for the industrial condit of Ireland in general.

BE A STRONG MAN

Increase your vitality. Restore your nerve energy and feel s you ought-brisk, hearty, and even ready for work. You need Ferrozone. It is just the remedy for men. It creates a keen appetite, gives prodi-gious digestion, pours richness and vi-tality into the blood.

It takes power to rebuild a worn out man, but Ferrozone has that power and Mr. Walter Wood of Beauport, N. B., supplies the proof.

of life. A year ago I suffered terribly from Nervous Headache Weakness. I was scarcely able to drug myself around, my appetite was gone, I had no color or ambition, and I felt used up. The first box of Ferrozone started me back to health. I took a lot of my health was completely restored." The ablest restorative known to man Ferrozone. Get it today. 50 cent per box, by all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., or Hartford, Conn.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

MACHIAS, Me., July 31.-After hold ing an inquest to determine the cause of the death of Harry Kominsky, a fruit dealer, whose body was found to-day on the floor of his store on Main street, under circumstances which at first led to suspicions of foul play, Cor-oner Chas, Johnson rendered a finding tonight that Kominsky's death was caused by accidental contact with a

A WOMAN'S SYMPATHY

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's bills a heavy financial heavy physical burden? I know what load? Is your pain a these mean to delicate women—I have been discouraged, too; but learned how Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill. I can do this for you, and will, if you will assist me. I shall be happy, and you will be cured for 2c. (the cost of a postage stamp). Your letters held cor ment. MRS. F. R. CURRAH,

LIGHTNING CAUSES SERIOUS FIRE

NEWPORT, Me., July 30.—During an late today lightning struck the farm house of Jasper Lewis, a mile from the village, and started a fire which burned a group of buildings, including the house and several small barns. The oss will exceed $6,000 and is partially covered by insurance.

TREPOFF STILL LIVING.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 30-The rumor in circulation last night that Gen. Prepoff had been assassinated turns out to be as baseless as the report to the same effect which was current early last week.

surest road to business success.-Wilthose with whom he was associated. | mington, Del., Every Evening.

The big new mill at Amherst needs more wool than ever. Farmers who have wool should exchange it for

Hewson Tweeds

at their dealers. Remember Hewson,

o st. john o - WEEKLY

4,992 Columns a Year. 8 Pages Twice a Week.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

If Paid in Advance, 75 Cents.

The Best Family Paper for old and young in the Maritime Provinces. RELIABLE MARKET REPORTS. FULL SHIPPING NEWS. SERMONS. STORIES BY EMINENT AUTHORS.

THE TURF, THE FIELD AND THE FARM. @ SEND FOR A FREE COPY ... @

Post Cards

A splendid picture of King Edward VII, or 5 Picture Post Cards, will be sent to any new or old subscriber sending to the Sun office 75 cents for a subscription one full year in advance and making the request.

SUN PRINTING COMPANY. St. John, N. B

Ferrozone, but it was worth while, as The Hill Climbing Contests Were Fraught With Hazard But No Accidents Occurred-Meet Over

> BRETTON WOODS, N. H. July 31. The motor vehicle meet in the White Mountains closed today with the Bay State Automobile Club's second annual hill climbing contest, in which thirty cars competed in eight events. Some fast times were made, but there were while walking in Battery Park. As soon many hairbreadth escapes in the three as the tricycle was alongside the land a quarter mile run up the paring stage she unfastened her walking and a quarter mile run up the narrow road of the Crawford Notch from the Willey House to the Crawford House lawn, and it is probable that next year the club will return to the road up Mount Washington for its test of up-hill work for cars. Nearly all the motorists that participated in the event today seemed to regard the road as more hazardous than that up Mount Washington.
>
> The best time was made by Guy Vaughn's thirty horse-power gasolene car, which covered the distance in two minutes and forty-eight seconds.
>
> While waiting for the hill-climbing and a quarter mile run up the narontests to finish, there was considerable discussion among the automobil-ists gathered on the lawn of the Crawford House regarding next year's tour of the American automobile Association and the project for a run from Boston to Jamestown, Va., in orern city in time for the exposition, seemed to meet with great favor.

It is planned to send the cars from Boston through Worcester, Springfi New York, Philadelphia, the Battlefield of Gettysburg, Baltimore, Washneid of Gettysburg, Baltimore, Wash-ington, Richmond, and with two or three side trips in Virging Gally three side trips in Virgina, finally

The side trips in Virginia are plan-ned to bring the tour up to 1,200 miles. At the conclusion of the hill-climbing contests today, many of the autos left for home, but the cars of the Bay State Club will not start until tomorrow morning for Boston, with the first day's run to Portland

ROBBERS ATTACK MAIL STAGE KILLING POSTMAN

GOMEL, July 30.—The mail stage running from here has been attacked by robbers, who killed the postmar and severely wounded the driver. They Two arrests have been made.

TRIED TO SWIM. DOVER, July 31.-Jabez Wolffe, th amateur swimmer, has made another Continuous advertising in the right mediums is the best and safest and surest road to business success.—Wil-

SHE RODE WATER TRICYCLE

A young woman who confessed that she was a show girl went to the Battery yesterday afternoon and asked a cop if he knew where she could find the water tricycle on which John Maxwell of the Casino had tried to days ago. The cop said that the craft was on the revenue cutter pier just abaft the Ship News office, Of course there were a lot of marine en the girl. A little while later the took the machine inside the Pier A

Miss Connar-Miss Jennie Connardon't forget the a and spell it with an e, had come prepared, i. e., the notion had not come to her all of a sudden and from a distance of two miles will ride ashore. Who is my press agent? sion. No, I simply wanted to do something."

BOSTON, July 30 .- Boston and Maine railroad officials today began an in cord Junction last Friday killed and other persons badly injur eld, ed. The accident was caused by an or maliciously.

BOYS FOR SAUSAGES. Even in England they have their beef scandals that make vegetarians. A butcher in Farrington-road, London, advertises: "Wanted, a respectable boy for beef sausages.

York Tribune.

Gigantic Cronstad

Syeabord's Garris and Loual Issues Proc

HELSINGFORS, military conspiracy, ultaneous capture great sea fortresses topol and Syeaborg rolutionary military maturely sprung he attempt to arrest pany of sappers whaccount of the dea comrades, alleged to ill-treatment.

The entire garrison Sveaborg flamed out voit. All the artil pers garrisoning the volved. Only four fantrymen remained fantrymen remained tineers seized forty practically all the light artillery in the with this aid they w the main fort agains try. The fighting co try. The fighting of long. The heavies from eleven o'clock. one in the morning, detachment of civi seized the marine ba den Island, hoisted twere joined by rines. Nine cr rines. Nine control boats and dest the harbor opened of racks. This fire was the third story windo racks with machine. The torpedo boats an which were lying clos were subjected to such the barracks that the driven below decks steamed out and joint bardment with the cr attack was in co-tacks by cossacks a the land side, which Finally towards e ceased and the auth At one o'clock in the cossacks cleared the of the palace facing S drove the public from front for the purpose the sending of assisticity to Sveaborg.

The exact situation not known. Firing heard. Rumors are the entire fortress he hands of the in ack confirmation. It his cessation of figh ude to the renewal ween the mutineers ment troops.

An authoritative est ed and wounded can but the casualty list must be heavy for waged with desperation. There are various regarding the fate of were at Sveaborg and den barracks. Accord almost all the officer to another, almost al cers sided with the r The marines at Sks to have convened an martial which conden cers to instant execu-

The wives and familion duty in the fort ashore by Gen. Laimi ested by the revolution The Red Guards, pedition by a speci the revolt broke ou way track outside of to prevent the arriv

"A general strike we afternoon and was afternoon and was workmen of all the fa LONDON, July 31.—ceived here by a nev Helsingfore, dated Jul fighting broke out aga Syeaborg district and saborg district and HELSINGFORS, Ju revolutionary workmed day occupied the rail Rilhioski, 50 miles from the main line burg joins the local line fors. They destroy orfors. They destro HELSINGFORS, A saborg is entirely orrible scenes occurit, when the fierd inued. The heavist during the conflict during the conflict weral officers were. The wounded were singlers. stoned and through a stone tied rot

ORE REFORM