

TION.
es, who
d "The
on the tice of
h Social pointed.
ession of

Delegates,
greater

deliver to
ers from
ark, their
or of the
mination,
nt, shall,
all be the
ting,) ho-
all be the
of the As-
the press.
engers a
of the ad-
er relates
members in
utes.

y, applica-
their faith
rator shall,
be present)

tion to the
aying with-
two or more
s standing,

er over the
ance and dis-
propriety of
hall appear
ever, that
any Church
this body, it
estigate the Association,

Constitution

ary usage.

Committee on Arrangements—Rev. E. Hickson, Dr. Spurden, W. A. Coleman, B. F. Rattray, J. Tozer, Deacon M. Francis, George Burns, John H. Harding, Joseph Sloot, G. C. Berryman, G. F. Miles, C. C. Urquhart, and Brother John Urquhart.

Committee on Temperance—Rev. E. Hickson, Dr. Spurden, W. A. Coleman, B. F. Rattray, J. Tozer, Deacon M. Francis, George Burns, John H. Harding, Joseph Sloot, G. C. Berryman, G. F. Miles, C. C. Urquhart, and Brother John Urquhart.

MINUTES.

NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, Sept 20th, 1866.

P. M. After a deeply interesting religious Conference, the Association met pursuant to adjournment, at 2 o'clock, Association was called to order by Rev. E. Hickson, Moderator of last year, and organized by the appointment of the following Officers, viz.:

REV. W. M. EDWARDS, Moderator;

" E. C. CADY, Clerk;

" B. F. RATTRAY, Asst. Clerk;

JOHN H. HARDING, Treasurer;

DEACON M. FRANCIS, Asst. Treasurer.

Prayer was offered by Rev. G. M. W. Carey.

The following visiting Brethren were invited to take seats with the Association, viz.:

Rev. G. F. Miles, of Nova Scotia; Rev. W. A. Coleman; Rev. E. N. Archibald, of P. E. Island.

Committees as follows were appointed:

On Arrangements—Rev. E. Hickson, John H. Harding, Jesse Harding, Wm. Grimley, Deacon A. Vaughan.

To examine and read Letters—J. E. Hopper, Rev. G. F. Miles, and Rev. G. Miles.

W. Carey.

On Circular Letter—Dr. Spurden, Brethren Robert Wasson and Burke Archibald.

To Superintend Printing Minutes—Revs. E. C. Cady, and B. F. Rattray.

On Home Missions—Revs. E. C. Cady, George Burns, E. Hickson, J. E. Hopper, and Bro. John H. Harding.

On Special Business—Revs. W. A. Coleman, J. Tozer, and Bro. Joseph Sloot.

On Foreign Missions—Revs. G. M. W. Carey, C. Spurden, D. D., and B. F. Rattray.

On Sabbath Schools—Rev. B. F. Rattray, Rev. E. C. Cady, R. Whitney, Joseph Dempsey, George Vye.

On Christian Visitor—Revs. G. M. W. Carey, Dr. Spurden, and G. F. Miles.

On Education—Bro. J. H. Harding, and Revs. J. E. Hopper, Dr. Spurden, E. N. Archibald, G. F. Miles, B. F. Rattray, and E. Hickson.

On New Churches—Rev. E. Hickson, Deacon M. Francis, Brethren Joseph Sloot, and G. C. Berryman.

On Temperance—Revs. G. F. Miles, George Burns, W. H. Beckwith, B. F. Rattray, and Brother John Urquhart.

On Union Societies—Revs. C. Spurden, D. D., George Burns, E. N. Archibald, J. Tozer, Brethren Grimley, Sloot, Summer and Travis.

On Departed Brethren—Revs. C. Spurden, W. A. Coleman, B. F. Rattray and E. Hickson.

To Prepare Digest of Letters—J. E. Hopper.