

WOLTER FOUND GUILTY; SENTENCE IS DEFERRED

New York Youth Must Die in Chair for Fiendish Murder of Young Girl.

Prisoner Unmoved at Sentence—Counsel Obtains Stay of Sentence Until Wednesday.

Immediately after the announcement of the verdict, Wallace Scott, counsel for Wolter, made a formal motion that the verdict be set aside.

Neither relatives of the murderer nor of his victim were in court to hear the verdict.

Ruth Wheeler was killed on Thursday, March 24, falling to dispose of her body in the fireplace.

The crime. Ruth Wheeler was killed on Thursday, March 24, falling to dispose of her body in the fireplace.

Circumstantial evidence is very dangerous evidence upon which to convict.

The assistant district attorney's arraignment of the prisoner during his summing up was scathing.

Mr. Moss grew emotional as he talked and turned pleadingly to the jury.

SENSATION IN COTTON CIRCLES

Comprehensive System to Defraud Said to Have Been Uncovered Involving Cotton Valued at $2,500,000 and Implicating Scores of Concerns

Liverpool, April 22.—There was a sensation in the cotton circles today when a sensational report was made.

The Echo says that the method of using the alleged false bills of lading was to append facsimile carriers signatures to bills of lading sent with drafts.

Motion Over-ruled.

Immediately after the announcement of the verdict, Wallace Scott, counsel for Wolter, made a formal motion that the verdict be set aside.

Neither relatives of the murderer nor of his victim were in court to hear the verdict.

Ruth Wheeler was killed on Thursday, March 24, falling to dispose of her body in the fireplace.

The crime. Ruth Wheeler was killed on Thursday, March 24, falling to dispose of her body in the fireplace.

Circumstantial evidence is very dangerous evidence upon which to convict.

The assistant district attorney's arraignment of the prisoner during his summing up was scathing.

Mr. Moss grew emotional as he talked and turned pleadingly to the jury.

PEACE AND LIBERTY OF LIBERALS

Practice Upheld by Government

Ottawa, April 22.—The greater part of the day was occupied over the abuse of the franking privilege.

A feature of the day was Mr. Aylesworth's speech. He was not a statesman but a partisan.

Mr. J. D. Taylor brought the matter up on a motion to go into supply.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

SETTLEMENT IN AFFAIRS OF THE ST. STEPHEN BANK

President Pays Out $100,000 in Full Settlement of Claims and Crisis is Averted.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, April 22.—The protracted silence in reference to the affairs of the St. Stephen Bank has at last been broken.

Hints have been current for some days of the possibility of this action being taken and a considerable array of legal talent has been busy on bank affairs.

All sorts of rumors were current as to what was "doing" but the most persistent was that the bank money was to be paid over to the bank.

The curator of the St. Stephen's Bank has received from the president, Mr. Frank Todd, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Todd feels a certain responsibility in connection with some of the losses made by the bank.

It is expected that it will enable the bank to pay all its obligations without a call upon the double liability.

Of course there are some who question the right of a stranger, even though he dropped in among us with the title of "curator" attached.

A circular has been received here today by stockholders in the St. Stephen Bank asking for a further contribution.

It is expected that it will enable the bank to pay all its obligations without a call upon the double liability.

Of course there are some who question the right of a stranger, even though he dropped in among us with the title of "curator" attached.

REDDING MOURNS DEATH OF TWAIN

New England Village Stilled By Passing of Friend and Benefactor—Arrangements for Funeral Completed—Simple Service in New York Followed By Burial at Elmira.

Redding, Conn., April 22.—The little village of Redding was in mourning today for its benefactor and friend, Mark Twain.

Among them were a telegram from President Taft and a cablegram from former President Roosevelt.

The body will be taken to the West Redding station at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and placed on board the Pittsfield express.

Hints have been current for some days of the possibility of this action being taken and a considerable array of legal talent has been busy on bank affairs.

All sorts of rumors were current as to what was "doing" but the most persistent was that the bank money was to be paid over to the bank.

The curator of the St. Stephen's Bank has received from the president, Mr. Frank Todd, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Todd feels a certain responsibility in connection with some of the losses made by the bank.

It is expected that it will enable the bank to pay all its obligations without a call upon the double liability.

Of course there are some who question the right of a stranger, even though he dropped in among us with the title of "curator" attached.

A circular has been received here today by stockholders in the St. Stephen Bank asking for a further contribution.

18 MINERS ARE KILLED

Tremendous Explosion Wrecks Ohio Colliery, Snuffing Out Lives Of Eighteen—Six Bodies Recovered.

Steubenville, Ohio, April 22.—The lives of eighteen miners were snuffed out in a tremendous explosion in the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company's mine at Amsterdam last night.

Some of the extracts from the letter so franked were extraordinarily untruthful.

Mr. Taylor made it clear that he was referring to the franking of this letter.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

REDDING MOURNS DEATH OF TWAIN

New England Village Stilled By Passing of Friend and Benefactor—Arrangements for Funeral Completed—Simple Service in New York Followed By Burial at Elmira.

Redding, Conn., April 22.—The little village of Redding was in mourning today for its benefactor and friend, Mark Twain.

Among them were a telegram from President Taft and a cablegram from former President Roosevelt.

The body will be taken to the West Redding station at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and placed on board the Pittsfield express.

Hints have been current for some days of the possibility of this action being taken and a considerable array of legal talent has been busy on bank affairs.

All sorts of rumors were current as to what was "doing" but the most persistent was that the bank money was to be paid over to the bank.

The curator of the St. Stephen's Bank has received from the president, Mr. Frank Todd, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Todd feels a certain responsibility in connection with some of the losses made by the bank.

It is expected that it will enable the bank to pay all its obligations without a call upon the double liability.

Of course there are some who question the right of a stranger, even though he dropped in among us with the title of "curator" attached.

A circular has been received here today by stockholders in the St. Stephen Bank asking for a further contribution.

NOVA SCOTIA HOUSE CLOSED

Legislature Prorogued At Halifax After Lengthy And Important Session—Legislation and Legislation.

Halifax, April 22.—The legislature of Nova Scotia closed its session today. The session was a fairly long one, and in many ways it was a session unparalled in the history of the province.

The most important bills passed during the session was the granting of provincial prohibition outside of Halifax.

Other bills of importance were the bill to amend the law relating to the appointment of a committee of ten with the mayor as chairman for the purpose of eliciting from the government.

Other bills of importance were the bill to amend the law relating to the appointment of a committee of ten with the mayor as chairman for the purpose of eliciting from the government.

Other bills of importance were the bill to amend the law relating to the appointment of a committee of ten with the mayor as chairman for the purpose of eliciting from the government.

Other bills of importance were the bill to amend the law relating to the appointment of a committee of ten with the mayor as chairman for the purpose of eliciting from the government.

Other bills of importance were the bill to amend the law relating to the appointment of a committee of ten with the mayor as chairman for the purpose of eliciting from the government.

DECISIONS IN SUPREME COURT

Many Important Cases Disposed Of At Last Session Of Court As Presently Constituted—The List.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., April 22.—In the Supreme Court this afternoon judgments were delivered in a number of important cases.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

WINTER PORT SEASON CLOSED AT HALIFAX

34,000 Passengers In All Landed At Citadel City During The Past Season—The Figures.

Halifax, April 22.—The arrival of the turbine Victorian from Liverpool today with fifteen hundred passengers marked the close of the winter port season.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

Some of the notable cases decided today were the so-called Lake George affinity case.

MILLER BILL BEFORE SENATE

Anti Betting Measure Meets With Vigorous Reception In Upper House—The Views Of Senator Davis.

Ottawa, April 22.—The Miller bill met with a vigorous reception when it reached the Senate today.

Senator Wilson thought it was an affront to the Senate to demand the passage of such a bill as this without a full explanation.

Senator Davis said he would like to have some points of this measure explained.

Senator Davis said he would like to have some points of this measure explained.

Senator Davis said he would like to have some points of this measure explained.

Senator Davis said he would like to have some points of this measure explained.

Senator Davis said he would like to have some points of this measure explained.

INQUIRING NOW INTO DEATHS AT WESTERY

Jury Behind Closed Doors Probes Into Strange Series Of Deaths Occasioned By Poisoned Whiskey.

Westerly, R. I., April 22.—A secret inquiry behind closed doors, was held today by coroner Everett A. Kingsley, assisted by town solicitor H. R. Agard, into the death of Daniel Sullivan, who died recently after drinking whiskey.

One of the most important was Patrick Brady, a Connecticut man who was with Sullivan when the latter brought down whiskey.

Brady was reluctant to tell where the liquor was bought.

Brady was reluctant to tell where the liquor was bought.

Brady was reluctant to tell where the liquor was bought.

Brady was reluctant to tell where the liquor was bought.

Brady was reluctant to tell where the liquor was bought.

FINDS $600 IN SECOND HAND STOVE

Safety Vault Of Newark Man Long Dead Yields Treasure When Sold To Second Hand Dealer.

New York, April 22.—After she had sold a second hand stove to a dealer today for thirty cents, Miss Nora Sullivan, aged 70 of Newark, N. J., learned that it was really worth $600.

She learned that it was really worth $600.

She learned that it was really worth $600.

INQUIRING NOW INTO DEATHS AT WESTERY

Jury Behind Closed Doors Probes Into Strange Series Of Deaths Occasioned By Poisoned Whiskey.

Westerly, R. I., April 22.—A secret inquiry behind closed doors, was held today by coroner Everett A. Kingsley, assisted by town solicitor H. R. Agard, into the death of Daniel Sullivan, who died recently after drinking whiskey.

One of the most important was Patrick Brady, a Connecticut man who was with Sullivan when the latter brought down whiskey.

Brady was reluctant to tell where the liquor was bought.