Boxing Art Now Has Many Devotees in Old London

Harry Lewis knocked out Johnny Summers, the Englishman, in four rounds, in London, Jan. 25. The photograph shows Summers clinching to avoid the punches Lewis poured into him.

London, Feb. 13.—Never was boxing so popular in London as at present. Glove artists, of all nationalities are here, and according to James E. Britt, formerly world's lightweight champion, who is now acting as Hugh D. McIntosh's secretary, more are coming.

In a chat with The Standard's correspondent regarding future events to be decided at the boxing arena into which the large annex at Olympia has been turned, the versatile Mr. Britt remarked:

"We have some big matches in view, though beyond the Bill Lang and Sam Langford go nothing definite has been so far arranged. Very probably our next big fixture will be between Harry Lewis and Jimmy Gardner. After that we hope to fix up Paddy McFarland with Freddy Welsh (the latter will then have got through with Matt Wells at the National Sporting Club) or Johnny Summers, while in March, Billy Papke and Jimmy Clabby will both be here and we shall arrange matches for each of them."

Tremendous interest is being aroused here in the meeting between Bill Lang and Sam Langford. When the Tar Baby arrived in London from America, he reported himself as in excellent condition, and announced that he would be ready for the Australian on Feb. 15, as agreed upon. Langford, however, accompanied by Joe Woodman has since called upon Mr. McIntosh and requested that the event be postponed a week to Feb. 22.

Lang naturally demurred at first, but like a sportsman, when he was informed that Langford required the extra week to get himself properly fit, finally agreed. This indicates the spirit in which the hope of the white man, as Lang is called here, views his struggles to reach world's championship honors. "If I win I want Langford to be at his best," he said.

At the weekly roll off on Black's alleys last night B. Johnston was the winner with 93 points. A silver cake basket was the prize.

SKATERS WILL MEET MONDAY IN CHAMPIONSHIPS

Local Flyers Will Compete Against Several of World's Heroes in Maritime Events Leabest Coming.

Great interest is being evinced in the Maritime skating championships which will be held in the Victoria rink on Monday evening next. The five championship events to be decided will be the 220, 440, 880 and mile senior races and a race for boys between the ages of twelve and sixteen years. There will also be other events in all of which keen competition is promised.

Definite assurance was received yesterday that Russell Wheeler of Montreal who, through the sponsorship of Edmund Lamy, holds the world's honors, will be among the starters. Another speedy man who will measure strokes with the champion and the local flyers is Leabest of Westville, N. S., probably the fastest skater in Nova Scotia. All the local flyers including Logan, Belyea, Ingraham, Coleman and Wright will compete so it will be seen that the meet will be a good one.

WHO IS HE?

Do you "make" this chap? His picture was first printed yesterday. He is so well known to readers of the sport page that the artist cut out more of his familiar features than of his predecessors, fearing he would be recognized too easily. Even with most of his face covered there's something strangely familiar about him. Who is he?

TWO GUESSES.

To the Sporting Editor of The Standard:—The picture on your sporting page today is that of Nelson.

16 Mill Street, St. John, N. B., Feb. 13, 1911.

Dear sir:—The disgraced man in Monday's 13th paper, is the defeated lightweight champion, Battling Nelson. You are right.

JOHN L. CUSSAN, Union Depot.

ANOTHER GUESS.

To the Sporting Editor of The Standard:—The picture in this morning's paper is "Battling Nelson," ex-lightweight champion of the world.

Sussex, N. B., Feb. 13, 1911.

SPORT FROM EVERYWHERE.

The Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Sokol Association, composed of Bohemian athletes, will send a team to Europe in July, 1911, to take part in the sixth Olympic, and fiftieth anniversary of Sokols, to be held in Prague.

Armstrong Technical School, of Washington, D. C. will hold an indoor meet in Convention Hall, in that city, open to colored schools. It will be perhaps the first meet of the kind ever held.

William J. Hackett, the Brookline (Mass.) Gymnasium Association long distance runner, who won the Brockton Fair Marathons in 1909 and 1910 and visited the Maritime Provinces last fall, is to compete in the English Marathon, May 24th, in London. He will leave April 11.

The final of the Scottish curling championship was decided at Glasgow between William Lindsay (Cambusnethan) and D. M. C. Nair (Falkirk). Lindsay, who was the holder of the championship, again won, 21 to 14.

Bowling Winners At St. Louis Meet

JIMMY BLOUIN.

Blouin won the individual championship of the American bowling congress, at the national tournament, St. Louis, gathering 48 pins. Blouin is one of the Chicago bunch, which cleaned up the major portion of the prize money offered for competition.

TEDDY GREETED OWEN MORAN

Ex-President Hobnobbs With English Champion While Passing Through Canada on Fast Train.

New York, Feb. 13.—Owen Moran, the English lightweight champion pugilist, and Theodore Roosevelt, ex-President of the United States, met on the New York Central train which brought both the Colonel and the game little British boxer on to this city from Michigan today.

Moran had never seen the former president, but picked out the Colonel among a party which entered the dining car of the Wolverine train as it was speeding through Canada toward Niagara Falls last night. When a friend who noted Moran's presence approached Mr. Roosevelt, and asked him if he would like to meet the English lightweight, the Colonel immediately turned away from his companions and walked over to Moran's table. "I've been a little out of line on boxing matters for the last year or so," said the Colonel, after greetings were exchanged. He was speedily enlightened as to Moran's record on kindred pugilistic events among the lightweights.

"So you knocked Nelson out, did you?" Fine, magnificent, exclaimed the Colonel, who looked the little fighter over appreciatively and examined closely a peculiarity of one of Moran's hands. For some time they exchanged reminiscences of fights and fighters.

When Moran remarked on the readiness with which Colonel Roosevelt had consented to talk to him, and the contrast which the fighter found with the exclusiveness of eminent men abroad, the Colonel straightened up and clinched his hands.

"Well, there's a King that I can't talk to, and no honest man that can't talk to me," the Colonel declared, with characteristic emphasis. Boxer and former president wished each other the best of good fortune on parting.

HURLEY AND SMITH MEET WEDNESDAY

New York, Feb. 13.—"Cy" Smith of New Jersey, and "King" Hurley have been matched to meet in a ten round bout at the Empire Athletic Club Wednesday night. Both boxers of the aggressive variety and both have excellent ring records.

Both Smith and Hurley are anxious to get a chance at "Kid" Broke, who for each is certain that his particular style of boxing will be just the proper thing to stop Valentine I.

When they meet at the Empire Athletic Club both promise to be at their very best. The bout is to be at catch weights.

Hurley has defeated some of the best men in the ring at his weight. His victory over Charley Griffin was one of the best fights in this city. In Smith Hurley will meet a boxer who will swap punches with him from the start.

KENNEL NOTES.

A great boon to dog fanciers and kennel men, if the claims of its discoverer can be substantiated, is a specific for distemper in the form of a toxin. Treatment is said to make a puppy immune from the disease.

Kipling said: "Buy a pup and your money will buy love unfeeling that cannot be."

The death of Charles Rodney King, from blood poisoning, has taken from the stud a sire whose influence will be felt for many generations.

West Highland white terriers although little known in some parts of the country, are rapidly making a place for themselves and promise to become deservedly popular in a few years.

The Erie, Pa. kennel club expects to hold a three point show March 14, 17, and judging from the way entries are being received by Secretary J. C. Hadley, expectations will be fulfilled.

No Stanley Cup Game This Year

MONCTON MAY HAVE TRY FOR STANLEY CUP

Ottawa Team Manager Says Contests Will Not Be Played This Season—3,200 Paid Admissions.

Ottawa, Feb. 13.—Chairman "Dave" Mulligan of the player's committee of the Ottawa Hockey Club, stated last night that the Ottawa team would not play any Stanley cup matches this season unless the trustees insisted on it.

Mr. Mulligan says as soon as the season is over the team will go immediately to New York and by the time they complete their engagements there the players will have had enough hockey for the season. It is probable there will be two challenges, one from the Ontario professional league and one from the Maritime Province league.

They will probably be held over till the start of the season of 1911-12, when they will be better for both teams financially.

Hockey Attendance.

Ottawa is the greatest hockey town in the world. If the attendance figures of Teddy Dey, the manager of the Arena, can be taken as a criterion, the local ice palace breaking all Canadian records for hockey matches in the senior game that have been played here this winter. Only five games in the National Hockey Association have been played to date, but the turnstiles show that over 32,000 paid admissions have been taken in at the Laurier Avenue rink, with three more games yet to be played.
