SPALDING'S CANADIAN GUIDE

The Standard has received Spalding's official Canadian baseball guide, edited by Joe Page. This, the fifth year for the Canadian edition, and it is bigger and better than ever. Considerable space is given to the Maine and New Brunswick league and the standing, batting and fielding averages of the clubs are given in full.

Here!

Ben Bey's secret is out. He is here, greeting the thousands who already know him and the others who have not met him before.

Ben Bey is the name of the ten cent cigar that is the favorite with hundreds of thousands of Canadian men. It pleases more men—rich, poor and in-between—than nearly any other cigar made. Millions were smoked last year, and more millions will be smoked this year.

There has been a very good crop of the choice tobaccos from which Ben Beys are made, and there are enough this year to "go around." Hence Ben Bey's appearance in this fashion—so that all smokers may make his acquaintance quickly.

Don't wait—get to know him now to-day! You'll be glad of it! Well-made, mellow, mild, steady-flavoured—this cigar. No weakness at the start, no rankness at the end—no frazzled wrapper, nor lop-sided burning.

Ten cents—Everywhere

Say "Ben Bey" to-day!

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP Wrestling Match

Tonight

Great interest is being manifested in the world's middleweight championship wrestling match which is to be held in the Queen's Rink tonight between McDonald and Ludecka. Both men are in the pink of condition and the bout promises to be the best ever staged in Canada. Splendid attractions have been booked and a great night is anticipated. The prices have been lowered to 50c. and $1.00, ring-side, so as to accommodate every fan in the city. The rink is cool and everything is in readiness for the accommodation of the many enthusiasts. It is to be the last of the season and should be a whirlwind.
